New Hampshire Police Cadet Training Academy

Mailing Address
Chief James C. Burroughs - Newport Police Department
59 Main Street, Newport, NH 03773-1519
603-863-3240 nhpcta@nhchiefsofpolice.com

Academy Commander
Lieutenant Pierre Pouliot

Assistant Commanders
Chief Samuel W. Frank, II
Officer Kevin Landry
Lieutenant Anne Gould

May 3, 2016

NH Police Cadet Training Academy to be held June 25 – July 1, 2016 at NHTI.

Annual Academy aims to help men and women ages 14-20 to overcome any challenges they may face in their future careers and hopes to build essential life skills for youth.

Manchester, NH – The New Hampshire Police Cadet Training Academy is currently accepting applications for the 2016 session. Sponsored for the past 42 years by the New Hampshire Police Association and the New Hampshire Association of Chiefs of Police, the New Hampshire Police Cadet Training Academy offers young men and women ages 14 – 20 the opportunity to experience life as a police recruit. This year, the weeklong Academy will take place at the New Hampshire Technical Institute campus in Concord, New Hampshire from June 25 – July 1.

There are three academy sessions held during the same week. The Academy starts with the Basic Class, designed for the first time Cadet and is limited to 100 applicants. The Cadet who returns for the second year attends the Advanced Academy. This is limited to thirty applicants. The third year Cadets are usually very serious about a pursuing a career in law enforcement and attends the Leadership Academy. This is limited to fifteen applicants.

The Academy staff is police and corrections officers from New Hampshire and the United States Army, whose time is generously donated by the Chiefs, Directors and Selectmen. Training for all three class levels is conducted by the most prestigious law enforcement officials in local, county, state, and federal law enforcement, as well as professionals from business, media and academia. The training has both physical and educational demands, the classroom topics are fascinating, and the discipline is motivating. Registration deadline is June 8th, but applications are considered on a first come, first serve basis.

At the conclusion of the Academy, the staff awards two scholarships worth a total of $1,500 to students continuing their education in the law enforcement or criminal justice fields. There is funding offered by the Dunbarton Police Association, Sean Powers Memorial Fund, NH Sheriff's Association and anonymous provider for assistance for applicants who may not be able to fully afford the tuition fee.

Applications may be found on our web page at www.nhchiefsofpolice.com then click on Cadet Training Academy. On the website, you will also find a link to a segment from New Hampshire Chronicle from WMUR Channel 9, Manchester, NH. Further information can be obtained from Chief James Burroughs, Newport, NH Police Department, 863-3240 or nhpcta@nhchiefsofpolice.com, or your local Chief of Police.