Re: State of New Hampshire v. Soffron Trust No. 1
Docket Nos.: 20572-04ED and 20573-04ED

Dear Attorney Greene:

Enclosed please find a copy of the Report of the Board relative to the above-captioned matter.

Also, returned herewith are Condemnee's Exhibits A, C, D, and E. Because Exhibits B and F are too large to mail, arrangements should be made for pick-up at the Board=s office. Please note exhibits not picked up within 90 days of the Board=s final, nonappealable decision will be destroyed. TAX 201.32.

Our records indicate the deposit of damages is still on deposit with the board. If your client wishes to withdraw the deposit, please forward a written request along with the completed W-9 form (enclosed). Upon receipt, we will immediately forward the checks to you, made payable to Soffron Trust No. 1.

Very truly yours,

Melanie J. Ekstrom
Deputy Clerk
