ORDER

On June 27, 2014, one day after the date specified in the Structuring Order and Hearing Notice, Revenue Counsel Caroline K. Delaney for the department of revenue administration (“DRA”) delivered to the Clerk of the board what Attorney Delaney refers to as a “Draft Agreed Protective Order.” She states this document has “not been executed, but counsel has agreed to the language [sic]” and she asks the Clerk “to file and docket . . . in your usual manner.” As requested, the Clerk has filed this document in these dockets. The board will await the filing of signed counterparts and will then treat the document as an agreement between the parties regarding the confidentiality of certain DRA documents.
