

IN-COURT TRAINING LOG

Completion of practical in-court training in the manner specified in the rules of the Guardian ad Litem Board is a requirement for persons initially certified or seeking renewal, recertification or reinstatement after September 15, 2007. Some GALs certified before this date may already have engaged in this training and may already have submitted to the Board verification of this training.

This form is provided to assist persons who have not previously provided the Board with information on the in-court training in which they have engaged. If not previously provided, the information should be submitted with the GAL's supporting materials relating to applications for renewal, reinstatement and recertification. As an alternative to the use of this form, a GAL may submit any other writing that complies with the provisions of Gal 401.09 (w).

Regarding in-court training provisions generally, see Gal 401.10 (e) (identifying in-court training as a requirement of new certification); Gal 401.09 (w) (describing requirement that information be provided for renewals) and Gal 303.02 (b) (2) (describing training). See also Gal 303.02 (a).
