Tom graduated from Merrimack College with a Bachelor's Degree in 1987. Tom earned a full academic scholarship to study for his Masters degree but, forwent this opportunity because he fell in love with the Restaurant Business. Over the next 5 years, he worked his way up through T-BONES, as a food server, Diningroom Manager, Head Kitchen Manager, and finally to General Manager for a period of 5 years.

Tom was then brought on as partner enabling the opening of Cactus Jack's in 1995. He held the Stores' General Manager position until 1998, when he took on additional responsibilities as the Director of Marketing for T-BONES & CJ's. In 1999, Tom enlisted his talent in overseeing all four restaurants operations cooperatively with Mark until 2004 when Tom was promoted to CEO.

Tom's present role as CEO provides strong leadership and entrepreneurial vision that has guided the Company to its current success. He exemplifies the qualities needed to maintain the company's existing fiscal strength and drive future growth. Tom's vision for the company is to become the premier restaurant company in New Hampshire and has said "We work hard every day to provide New Hampshire and our visiting guests with a 'polished' casual dining experience."
