GRANITE STATESMEN OF THE BARBERSHOP HARMONY SOCIETY OF NASHUA
BARBERSHOP HARMONY

The Granite Statesmen is the Nashua Chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society and was founded in 1955. The full chorus has approximately 80 members and within this are several quartets who can perform or teach independently. The Nashua chapter draws its members largely from southern New Hampshire and northeastern Massachusetts and several people have been in the chapter for over 30 years. The Granite Statesmen put on several shows a year including a Spring show held in both Nashua and Manchester and a Christmas Cabaret held in Nashua. The group can perform in different configurations (quartets to full chorus) depending upon purpose of the event. Their fees are flexible and depend largely on the number of chorus members performing. On occasion, they donate a performance for a worthy cause.

Programs Offered: Demonstrations, performances, lectures, and hands on workshops at schools, community locations such as libraries, historic societies, lecture halls, fairs, festivals, and museums. Their primary focus is on performing but they are available for vocal lessons and to coach existing quartets and choruses. Interested in working with school-aged children Kindergarten through high school, college students, adults and the elderly statewide. They are available year-round.

HAGOB JACK ZARZATIAN

ANATOLIAN, NEAR & MIDDLE EASTERN MUSIC

Jack Zarzatian sings and plays the guitar as well as the middle eastern oud. Jack was born into a Greek and Armenian family. His parents were both classically trained violinists and his father performed in a Greek and Armenian band in Philadelphia where he grew up. Over the years, Jack has studied with Turkish and Armenian master musicians and has been playing Near and Mid-Eastern music for over 40 years. He can offer a solo performance or make arrangements for Greek and Armenian musicians (mostly from the Boston area) to join him. He performs locally for community events and weddings but has also performed at large events around the country, including the Lowell Folk Festival (1996 & 2002), the Smithsonian Folklife Festival (1994), and at the New York Metropolitan Museum opening for the King Tutankhamun exhibit.

Programs Offered: Performances, demonstrations, and workshops at schools and community locations such as libraries, historic societies, fairs, festivals, and museums. Interested in working with school aged children 6th grade through high school, college students, adults and the elderly. Can work statewide and is available year-round primarily on weekends, day or evening.
