

The New Hampshire State Council on the Arts Invites You to Save the Dates: October 25th and 26th 2013 for

Exploring Creativity: Making Space for the Arts in our Classrooms, Schools and Communities

At Camp Cody on Beautiful Lake Ossipee
www.campcody.com

The arts expand student potential by encouraging creativity, innovation and critical thinking skills. A comprehensive arts education is an effective tool for developing the whole child, keeping students in school and promoting high achievement. This conference brings together educators, teaching artists, parents plus community and education leaders to implement quality arts education and programming in schools and communities.

Conference Highlights Include:

- Keynote speaker (Fri, October 25): Eric Booth
  - Described as “the father of the teaching arts profession”
- Keynote speaker (Sat, October 26): Heidi Joann Welch
  - Music Educator & 2013 NH Teacher of the Year
- Arts at the Core: Connecting Education Policy with Experience: Presentation with Amy Charleroy, Researcher, The College Board
- Arts Advocacy Luncheon – with the NH Arts Learning Network
- Film screening of Inocente, a story about the transformative power of art and homelessness in America. www.inocentedoc.com

Plus:

Hands on Arts Learning Workshops & Seminars • Information on Grants Writing and Funding Opportunities • Exhibits and Resources • Updates on Arts & the Common Core & the newly proposed National Arts Standards • Leadership & Arts Advocacy • Networking • Panel discussion on current and emerging issues in arts education • Meet and connect with teaching artists from NH and New England.

For information or to submit a workshop proposal, check the New Hampshire State Council on the Arts website www.nh.gov/nharts or contact Catherine.R.OBrien@dcr.nh.gov; 603-271-0795. To register visit www.aannh.org

Learning an art is a process that becomes a way of life: passion... imagination ...discipline ...joy!

~Unknown

Conference Partners Include:

New Hampshire Arts Learning Network

