

New Hampshire Arts in Healthcare Workshop for Artists and Arts Organizations

Saturday, June 8, 2013

Concord Hospital, Concord, New Hampshire

9:30-10:00	Registration, refreshments, live music
10:00-10:30	Welcome and Introduction: Catherine O'Brian & Alice Kinsler Reader's Theater: AIH Narratives
10:35-11:15	Keynote: Why We Need the Arts in Medicine and Public Health Gary Christenson, M.D. , President (2011-2013) of the Global Alliance for Arts and Health (formerly the Society for the Arts in Health Care) followed by Q & A
11:15-11:30	Break
11:30-12:15	Plenary Session: What do Health Care Sites Look for in a Visiting Artist? Followed by Q & A Presenters: Alice Kinsler, Catherine O'Brian & Frumie Selchen
12:15-1:00	Lunch in Concord Hospital Cafeteria (Covered Bridge Café)
1:00-2:15	Inspiration, Challenges and Next Steps: A Conversation with four Artists and an arts administrator/educator who work in Health Care: Artists, June Latti, Emily Mills, Rebecca Gottesman, Theo Martey Jane Seney, from the Currier Museum of Art Followed by full conference discussion on following questions: *What has inspired you most? *What are barriers/challenges to doing this work? *What's next? How to create a NH-AIH network? *What do you need to make the case for AIH in your community or at a health care organization?
2:15-2:30	Closing remarks, Reflection, Evaluations

Throughout the Workshop: Compendium of New Hampshire Arts-in-Healthcare Images (slide show), and "Expressions of Color from the Heart", a touring exhibit of creative painting by people with dementia and other disabilities, funded in part by the NH State Council on the Arts.