

New Hampshire Children's Authors and Illustrators Available for School/Library Presentations

RICK AGRAN

PO Box 245

Plymouth, NH 03264

603-536-9050

semidemiquaver@gmail.com

Author

Description: Rick Agran works with the NH Humanities Council and the NH State Council on the Arts to lead book discussions for "What is NH Reading?" and as a poet in the schools in the Arts in Education program. He will also do author talks, poetry reading and writing.

Audience: pre-school to adult

Length: from one hour to month-long residency

Fee: negotiable

ROBERTA BAKER

376 Sanborn Road

Tilton, NH 03276

603-286-4051

robaker@fcgnetworks.net

Author

*Please note: phone is best way to contact Author

Description: In her program, the author covers the stages of writing, illustrating, editing and publishing a picture book from idea through final product, and includes time for questions and answers. Workshops get children started on a writing/illustrating project that they can finish at home or at the library.

Audience: K- grade 4

Length: 45 minutes - hour

Fee: $150-$200, depending on travel time

JULIE BRILLHART

12 Perry Avenue
Concord, NH 03301
603-225-4776
juliebrillhart@yahoo.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: The author reads her latest book, describes how she writes and illustrates a book, takes questions, and shows original illustrations.

Audience: K- grade 2
Length: 20-30 minutes
Fee: $75/classroom

MARYANN COCCA-LEFFLER

14 Holt Road
Amherst, NH 03031
603-672-8991
mcleffler@aol.com
www.maryanncoccaleffler.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: The presentation is based on the theme of the author-illustrator's most recent book. The powerpoint slideshow both excites and educates, inspiring the audience to create their own art and stories. Through the presentation "The Story Behind the Story," the author-illustrator shows how a book is developed from concept to finished book. She also shares her storyboards, sketches and paintings and she makes a drawing for the library/school to keep. The presentation ends with a question-answer period.

Audience: Any age
Length: Please contact presenter
Fee: $1,000/day for three sessions

TABITHA JEAN D'AGATA

25 Alice Avenue
Hooksett, NH 03106
603-647-9993
tabadoo@aol.com
www.thesavvyclick.com/TJean.htm
Author

Description: The following workshops are available: A Story-Planning Event; Release the Muse! and A Wordy Recipe! Please see website for details and more information.

Audience: K-grades 8; mixed ages
Length: tailored to meet the needs of libraries and schools
Fee: Negotiable

CHRIS DEMAREST

Po Box 58

Meriden, NH 03770

603-469-3095

www.demarestdraws.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: The powerpoint presentation takes the audience through real life research and subsequent art as it relates to his books (such as Hurricane Hunters). The author also provides various equipment for hands-on discussion.

Audience: Ages 7 and up

Length: 50 minutes. (up to four presentations/day)

Fee: $900/day; $500 half-day

MURIEL L. DUBOIS

7 Colby Ct. Box 156

Bedford, NH 03110

603-472-8741

Apprenticeshpbks@aol.com

www.murieldubois.com/

Author

Description: The author's books have a strong focus on New Hampshire history. Mrs. Dubois will do up to three one-hour presentations of any of the following topics per day: 1)The Life of Sarah Hale; 2) Abenaki Captive: How a Picture Book Became a Novel; 3) What Do You Mean I have to Write it Again? A Whiner Learns to Revise; and 4)Pajamas, Tea, Dogs, and Deadlines: The Writing Life. Each talk is presented either as a Power Point or overhead program with some audience participation. See website for more details.

Audience: Grades 3 and up. Groups should be about 50 people--2 to 3 classrooms per session.

Length: 45 minutes to one hour

Fee: $150 per session

DAVID ELLIOTT

228 Kearsage Mountain Road

Warner, NH 03278

603-456-2714

delliott@conket.com

www.davidelliottbooks.com

Author

Description: The author covers a variety of topics such as writing work and revision; the collaborative process of book making; and writing exercises. Please visit website for more details.

Audience: varies

Length: 50 minutes

Fee: Contact school visit coordinator; see website for information.

JENNIFER A. ERICSSON

50 South Street, Apt 2F

Concord, NH 03301

603-226-7256

JAERICSSON@aol.com

Author

Description: Authors are Real People--Geared for young children and their parents, this 45 minute program uses a storytime format to inform and entertain.

Personal information is shared, several of the author's picture books are read, and all questions are answered.

From Idea to the Printed Page--This one-hour workshop for elementary school-aged children (grades 1-4) explains the process of how an idea in your head becomes a book in your hands. The workshop includes a group writing activity and time for questions.

Audience: See above

Length: See above

Fee: library programs: $125 each elementary school visits: $650/day.

Author will do up to four one-hour presentations of From Idea to the Printed Page in one day for grades 1 & up. Kindergarten is usually a much shorter and more casual program with Author reading a couple of her picture books to individual classes.

RALPH FLETCHER

PO Box 855

Durham, NH 03824

fletcher17@earthlink.net

www.ralphfletcher.com

Author

Description: The author does three or four presentations, focusing on his writing process, especially the writer's notebook. He shows the audience how he rewrites his work. The author also reads from his works and does some storytelling, ending with a question and answer session.

Audience: K-grade 5; middle school

Length: 40 minutes; shorter for K-1

Fee: $1,500/day

MARIE HARRIS

PO Box 203

Barrington, NH 03825

603-664-7654

marie@marieharris.com

www.marieharris.com

Author

Description: The author's school programs involve participatory writing workshops and interactive discussion centering on her recent books: G is for Granite and Primary Numbers. While these books—a NH alphabet book and NH number book—are written, respectively, with grades 3-5 and grades K-2 in mind, there are many discussion points suitable for older students (e.g. the making of a book; research; poetry and prose styles, etc.)

Audience: varies

Length: one hour

Fee: $750/day (four sessions); some negotiation possible.

KAREN BUSCH HOLMAN

PO Box 155

Andover, NH 03231

603-735-4207

jholman@tds.net

galleryatthepoplars.com

Illustrator

Description: The program is an art lesson teaching children how a book is illustrated. The class first writes their own class poem, which is done several weeks before the illustrator's visit. Then, the illustrator typesets and illustrates the poem. During the visit, the illustrator walks through the sketching phase, teaching the class little tricks to help them draw better. The illustrator provides pastels and works with the class to color their illustrations. Each child leaves with his/her own drawing.

Audience: K-grade 5

Length: 55-75 minutes

Fee: $675 (includes the $30 lab fee for pastels)

ERICK INGRAHAM

PO Box 321

Jaffrey, NH 03452

603-532-5678

ingraham@erickingraham.com

www.erickingraham.com

Illustrator

Description: The illustrator discusses how he starts a book and goes over all of the steps to illustrating the book. He offers interesting behind-the-scenes stories and shows things that few people get to see, like translated versions of his books. He also presents a slide show that has a vocal soundtrack with music and sound effects. After answering questions, the Illustrator presents the grand finale: the live impromptu drawing session. This is an entertaining demonstration of how he gets early story ideas onto paper quickly. See website for samples.

Audience: ages 6-11

Length: 50 minutes

Fee: libraries—one talk: $350 plus travel elementary schools: two talk minimum: $650 plus travel. For three talks in one day, add $200; for a fourth talk, add $100.

MARTY KELLEY

7 East Lull Place

New Boston, NH 03070

603-487-9918

martykelley@hotmail.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: This is a fun, high-energy program that explains the writing and illustrating process. The presentation includes lots of samples of work, audience participation and drawing demonstrations.

Audience: Grades 1-6

Length: one hour

Fee: $750 for three one-hour programs; $250 for one program

TRUE KELLEY

79 Old Denny Hill Road
Warner, NH 03278
603-456-2190
true@conknet.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: One program focuses on how books are made and how words and pictures work together. With audience input, the Author writes a story. The other program explores drawing and demonstrates cartooning tricks. The audience then helps to make an illustration that tells a story.

Audience: K-grade 6

Length: 20 minutes to one hour

Fee: $800/day; $300 for single presentation; travel expenses negotiable

SY MONTGOMERY

115 Antrim Road
Box 127
Hancock, NH 03449
sy@millmoss.mv.com
Authorwire.com
Author

Description: The author does slide show lectures suitable for assemblies as well as classroom visits. The slide show topics include the following: life as an explorer-author; Encantado: exploring the life of the pink Amazon dolphin; 18,000 slithering snakes and how to study them; the tarantula scientist; search for the golden moon bear; and spell of the tiger.

Audience: Grades 4-8

Length: 45 minutes

Fee: $1,500 (negotiable)

CYNTHIA G. NEALE

574 Main Street
Hampstead, NH 03841
(603) 329-4249
(603) 548-6740 (cell)
Neale@metro2000.net
www.cynthianeale.com
Author/Presenter

Description: The author conducts educational events at schools, libraries, bookstores, and other venues to inspire and challenge students to learn about hunger, immigration, and to create their own American Dream. Author dresses in immigrant clothing and brings in a live red hen, 'Miss Maggie,' and describes life in Ireland during The Great Hunger, 1845-1850. Author is available for a short presentation with a reading or longer presentation that includes a monologue in costume with props, discussion, dvd excerpts of immigrant vignettes from the American Immigration Law Foundation, and activities, such as journal making to signify the importance of treasuring words. The author encourages students to enjoy history and to learn about hunger and immigration, past and present. Author will also share about her daily writing life and read excerpts from her books.

Audience: Grades 4 to 8
Length: flexible
Fee: Negotiable

DENISE ORTAKALES

711 Shore Drive
Laconia, NH 03246
603-528-2168
denise@ortakales.com
www.deniseortakales.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: The program covers topics such as the process of writing and illustrating children's books, where ideas come from, journaling, and what it is like to be a professional illustrator.

Audience: All
Length: 30-60 minutes, depending on age and topic.
Fee: $225 for one library session; $500 for four school sessions.

MARY LYN RAY

104 Frazier Brook Road
So. Danbury, NH 03230
603-768-3266 (for use by librarians or teachers only)
Author

Description: When the author visits a school, she wants to invite conversations about the mystery of story and the mysteries of writing. The author reads to and talks with the audience. The central things the author talks about are where stories come from, how they find a form, how a manuscript becomes a picture book, how it may feel to look at a piece of paper and not know what to write. The author will typically tell some of the stories she's written (or may be writing), something of how she writes and why she writes. She also wants to hear questions from the audience.

Audience: K-grade 5; middle school; high school; adult
Length: 30 minutes for Kindergarten groups; 45 minutes to one hour for other groups
Fee: $650 for a day (three groups)

STEVE SCHUCH

Night Heron Music
267 Center Road
Hillsborough, NH 03244
603-464-4321

info@nightheron.com

www.NightHeron.com

Author, Musician and Storyteller

Description: Options include The Author's Story; A Symphony of Whales; Songs & Tales Around the World; Music & Tales of Ireland; Parent/Educator Workshops; Artist Residencies. See web site for full descriptions of these and other programs.

Audience: Ages 5 and up; see web site for further information.

Length: varies

Fee: Varies; contact author for specifics. Block booking and grants available.

JOHN STADLER

264 River Road
Lyme, NH 03768

email@johnstadler.com

johnstadler.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: John Stadler's presentations are known for their humorous, educational and interactive qualities. Generally, each presentation consists of up to five parts:

1. John draws some characters from his books. (An easel with copious amounts of large paper and markers should be supplied for the visit.)
2. John shows how picture books and pop-up books are made from start to finish (idea, mock-up, printing and book form).
3. John demonstrates how to come up with ideas, actively involving the children in the process and drawing out their ideas on the spot.
4. If time and location permit, there can be a slide presentation.
5. Question and answers.

Audience: All ages, mostly K-grade 4

Length: 45 minutes

Fee: $250-$1300, depending on program and distance