

We hope you can attend this workshop. To register, simply send me an e-mail. Thank you!

amy.hudnor@des.nh.gov

Organized by:

A 2012 survey* revealed water quality protection was the most important reason for conserving land to New Hampshire people. Please attend this workshop on the whys and hows of land conservation for drinking water source protection. Speakers from NHDES, The Nature Conservancy and Southeast Land Trust will share:

- Why you should consider conserving land for drinking water
  - Success story of recently conserved land in Durham
  - The new public water supply mapping tool from the NHDES Coastal program
- A guided Q&A and discussion will follow.

Conserving Land to Protect Drinking Water

Approved for AICP 2 CM credits

When?

Tuesday, September 27

10am to noon

Where?

NHDES Portsmouth at Pease Tradeport, 222 International Drive, Suite 175, Portsmouth

Who should attend? Planners and planning board members, land conservation professionals, conservation commissioners, and anyone else interested in conserving land for drinking water

How do I register?

Workshop is free and registration is simple. Just RSVP to Amy Hudnor by e-mail or phone: amy.hudnor@des.nh.gov or (603) 271.2950.

*Novak, C. & A. Smith. 2012. NH Conservation Attitude Survey Report. University of New Hampshire