If an employee is injured on the job, no matter how slightly, the employee must report the incident immediately to their supervisor. Employees must complete the necessary workers compensation forms following any injury. Once a claim is approved, the employee will receive a dollar amount for a period of time from the workers' compensation company, as specified by State law. Workers' compensation is tax exempt and is not considered compensation under the New Hampshire Retirement System.

24.2 If an employee has applied for workers' compensation and is awaiting approval, the employee may use any available accrued time in order to receive a paycheck. Examples of accrued time are sick, vacation, personal day, floater, etc. The employee must agree in writing that upon receipt of workers' compensation a reimbursement will be done to restore the accrued leave time that was used; and, to ensure the employee will not have been paid more than 100% of the employee's regular gross wages between workers' compensation and the Town. If the amount of reversal is of a size that cannot be reversed from one paycheck, the amount will be divided up and reversed over multiple paychecks.

24.3 When the employee is approved for workers' compensation, the employee will keep their workers' compensation check/wages and the Town will supplement that workers compensation payment with regular wages in an amount that will equal 100% of the employee's regular gross wages. This is known as the differential pay. The employee keeps the differential pay. The differential will be paid for up to a maximum of 15 weeks. Once the 15 week differential pay has been exhausted, the employee may use any accrued time he/she has in order to be compensated at 100%.

24.4 If the employee has been denied workers' compensation, the employee has the right to appeal and continue to use any available accrued time in order to receive a paycheck while waiting for the appeal decision. Examples of accrued time are sick, vacation, personal day, floater, etc. If the appeal is won, the same reimbursement process would apply.

24.5 An employee who has sustained an on-the-job injury will be reinstated to his or her former position within eighteen (18) months of the initial injury if the position exists and is available, and the employee is not disabled from performing the duties of the position. A fitness-for-duty certificate may be required before an employee is permitted to return to work.

24.6 Under New Hampshire law, an employee's reinstatement rights expire eighteen (18) months from the date of injury. An employee also will not be reinstated if they have accepted a job with another employer at any time after the date of the injury, or if there is a medical determination that the employee cannot return to their former position. Other circumstances concerning reinstatement will be governed by the New Hampshire Department of Labor requirements.

24.7 Upon return to work the employee will receive any cost of living increase that would have normally occurred while on workers' compensation. Upon return to work the employee will receive, if qualified, any merit increase that was missed while on workers' compensation. The same evaluation process will be used as is used for all other employees.

24.8 Additional holiday pay above workers' compensation payments will not be awarded while the employee is on workers' compensation.

The Hooksett Fire-Rescue Department will select vendors for members to order items from after they have received approval from the Fire Chief or his/her designee that they have the available funds.

28.2 If a situation should arise which threatens to disrupt the workplace when the Shop Steward is on duty, the Town Administrator or designee will attempt to schedule times or meetings so as not to lessen departmental coverage. If a settlement cannot be reached, the Steward shall report it by telephone to the Union Business Agent. If the issue still cannot be settled, the Steward shall reduce any resulting grievance to writing and submit it in accordance with the grievance procedure. The Town Administrator or designee may discuss situations direct with the Union Business Agent.

If such a statement is not presented in written form, it shall be presented orally at the beginning of the mediation conference.
- E. Proceedings before the mediator shall be informal in nature. The rules of evidence will not apply, and no record of the mediation conference shall be made.
- F. The mediator will have the authority to meet separately with any person or persons, but will not have the authority to compel the resolution of the grievance.

- H. The mediator's advisory decision, if accepted by both parties, shall not constitute a precedent unless both parties agree.

When a flextime schedule or arrangement is used, it is the department head or designee's responsibility to ensure that staffing is always available to meet the operational requirements of the department as well as the needs of the public during normal business hours. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waive the right, and each agrees the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to, or covered, by this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subjects or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

34.3 The parties to this agreement may voluntarily agree to re-open negotiations on any subject, matter, provision, or article of this agreement at any time. Should the parties agree to mutually reopen this agreement; the remaining articles of the agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Should the parties fail to reach an agreement on any subject, matter, provision, or article which was mutually agreed upon as the subject of the re-opener, then the subject, matter, provision, or article of the existing agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
