All of the above categories mean continuous employment or assignment, without interruption of service.

5.2 Until an employee has served the initial probationary period, it shall be deemed that he/she has no seniority status, and he/she may be discharged or laid off with or without cause, and such discharge or layoff shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

5.3 Upon appointment to a regular full time position, the first six months of service in the position shall be considered the initial probationary period.

In the event an employee is not meeting the work standard, the probationary period may be extended up to an additional six months.

In the event an employee does not meet the work standard at the conclusion of the first six months or at the conclusion of the extended probationary period, he or she shall be separated from service except in the case of a promotional probationary period, all efforts will be made to return said employee to his or her former position if such position is available.

In the event that no senior qualified employee(s) chooses such work week, then the most junior qualified and experienced employee(s) in the classification shall be assigned.

Effective on July 20, 2004, new employees hired to fill positions included in the bargaining unit may be assigned by Management to a work week consisting of any five (5) consecutive days between Sunday and the following Saturday. Regular Employees who refuse to work overtime as required by the Director and/or the Supervisor shall be subject to disciplinary action.

The Department does recognize that it may be inconvenient for individual regular employees to work overtime and it will give due consideration to each request for relief from overtime work.

ADVANCE NOTICE. Regular employees who work overtime will be given as much advance notice as is reasonably possible under the circumstances.

8B.2 PLANNED OR SCHEDULED OVERTIME. Planned or scheduled overtime shall be on a voluntary basis. Regular employees who wish to participate in planned/scheduled overtime shall sign up for such overtime on the posted notices, which shall be posted twice a year. Overtime lists shall be developed from the regular employees who sign up on the posted notices. Placement on the lists shall be assigned first on a rotating basis among all qualified regular employees by seniority within the Division.

8B.3 OVERTIME FOR DIVISION. Overtime work which is scheduled in advance or which requires regular employees to be called in for unscheduled work shall be assigned first on a rotating basis among the members within the classification who normally perform the work among all qualified regular employees within the Division who have signed up for overtime in accordance with Section 16.2 above. If the overtime situation requires additional regular employees to be assigned, then such assignments shall be made among qualified regular employees from the Overtime List in accordance with Section 16.2 above.

8B.4 FAILURE TO WORK OVERTIME. Any regular employee who accepts an overtime assignment who fails to work without an acceptable excuse will be by-passed until the rotating cycle among regular employees on the overtime list has been completed twice and his/her turn is due again.

The intent of this Section is that overtime shall be assigned to regular employees in the reverse order of classification seniority.

If a person on call gets more than three (3) calls from unrelated incidents in a three (3) hour period and does not have to respond to a call, then the person will be entitled to the three (3) hour call back pay under the callback provision.

Read Your Dental Plan Description Carefully—This Outline of Coverage provides a very brief description of the important features of your dental benefits plan. This is not the insurance contract, and only the actual policy provisions will control. The Dental Plan Description itself sets forth in detail the rights and obligations of both you and your insurance company. It is therefore important that you READ YOUR Dental Plan Description CAREFULLY! Not all time limitations and exclusions are shown herein. Benefit percentages shown are based on the actual charges submitted up to the Maximum Allowable Charge for participating dentists, or Delta Dental's allowance for non-participating dentists.
