ARTICLE XIII – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 1. Family and Medical Leaves of Absence General Provisions

Under the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 ("FMLA"), all employees who worked at least 1,250 hours during the prior twelve (12) months are entitled to take not more than twelve (12) work weeks unpaid FMLA leave of absence in a twelve

(12) month period (as defined below) in the event of:

- a. the birth of a son or daughter of the employee and in order to care for
- b. that child after birth, or for the placement of a child with the employee for the purposes of adoption or foster care;
- c. to care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent if that relative has a serious health condition;
- d. an employee's own serious health condition which makes the employee unable to perform the functions of his position;
- e. for qualifying exigencies arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, son, daughter, or parent is on active duty or call to active duty status as a member of the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation;
- f. for qualifying exigency leave to spend time with a military member on rest and recuperation leave may take up to fifteen calendar days of leave; and
- g. to care for a military member's parent who is incapable of self-care when the care is necessitated by the member's covered active duty.

Employees are eligible for up to twenty-six (26) weeks of unpaid leave during any 12-month period when an employee is a spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a veteran or current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, with a serious injury or illness to care for the service member.

As stated above, an eligible employee is entitled to a total of twelve (12) work weeks of leave during any twelve (12) month period. That twelve (12) month period is defined as a rolling" twelve (12) month period measured backward from the date an employee begins any FMLA leave. Each time an employee begins a FMLA leave; he is eligible to use any of the maximum of twelve (12) weeks leave not used in the prior twelve (12) months. For example, if an employee has used eight (8) weeks of FMLA leave during the twelve (12) months prior to a new leave request, the employee is then eligible to take an additional four (4) weeks of leave. As further example, if an employee takes four (4) weeks of FMLA leave beginning September 1, 1994, and four (4) weeks of FMLA leave beginning December 1, 1994, an employee requiring additional FMLA leave on March 1, 1995, would have four (4) weeks of FMLA leave available. In other words, the number of weeks which an employee has available upon the beginning of a FMLA leave shall be twelve (12) weeks less the number of FMLA leave weeks taken in the twelve (12) month period prior to the beginning of the current FMLA leave (the "Available Leave Weeks").

FMLA leaves for the birth or placement for adoption or foster care of a child, as described in paragraphs A above, must be taken all at once unless otherwise agreed to by the Town Administrator. If medically necessary, FMLA leaves due to illness as described in paragraphs B, C and F above may be taken on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. If FMLA leave is requested on this basis, the Town Administrator may require the employee to transfer temporarily to an alternate position which better accommodates periods of absence or a part-time schedule, provided that the position has equivalent pay and benefits.

When a FMLA leave is approved, an employee's accrued, unused minimum annual usage earned time as provided in ARTICLE XIV, EARNED TIME will be included as part of the twelve (12) week leave requirement for a type A FMLA leave listed above. For example, an employee with eighteen (18) earned, unused days is required to use ten (10) of those days before taking not more than ten (10) additional unpaid weeks. In addition, for type A FMLA leave the employee may at his/her option utilize other accrued unused earned time to cover any period of otherwise unpaid leave. For all other types of FMLA leaves, an employee will be required to first use any accrued unused earn time before taking any part of such leave as unpaid.

When an employee requests any leave of absence which qualifies as leave under the FMLA, the Town Administrator may designate such leave as FMLA leave upon written notification to the employee.

Status of Employee Benefits

While on FMLA leave, employees may continue to participate in the Town's group health insurance in the same manner as employees not on FMLA leave. - In the event of unpaid FMLA leave, an employee shall pay to the Town Accountant the employee's share of any medical insurance premiums once per month in advance on the first day of each month. For contributions to a flexible spending account, if any, during any unpaid FMLA leave, such amounts must be withheld from the employee's last paycheck or checks. In the event that the employee elects not to return to work upon completion of a FMLA leave of absence, the Town may recover from the employee the cost of any payments to maintain the employee's medical coverage, unless the employee's failure to return to work was for reasons beyond the employee's control.

Benefit entitlements based on length of service will be calculated as of the last paid work day prior to the start of the leave of absence; for example, an employee on leave will not accrue vacation. At the end of an authorized FMLA leave, an employee will be reinstated to his or her original or a comparable position.

Basic Regulations and Conditions of Leave

The Town will require medical certification within fifteen (15) calendar days (if practicable) to support a claim for FMLA leave for an employee's own serious health condition or to care for a seriously ill child, spouse or parent. For the employee's own medical leave, the certification must include a statement that the employee is unable to perform the functions of his or her position. For FMLA leave to care for a seriously ill child, spouse or parent, the certification must include an estimate of the amount of time the employee is needed to provide care. In its discretion, the Town may require a second medical opinion and periodic recertification at its own expense. If the first and second opinions differ, the Town, at its own expense, may require the binding opinion of a third health care provider, approved jointly by the Town and the employee.

Notification and Reporting Requirements

When the need for FMLA leave is foreseeable, such as the birth or adoption of a child, or planned medical treatment, the employee must provide thirty (30) days advance notice and make efforts to schedule leave so as not to disrupt Town operations. In cases of illness, the employee will be required to report periodically on his or her FMLA leave status and intention to return to work. At the expiration of any FMLA leave due to the employee's own illness, the employee must present a written authorization from his/her doctor stating, that the employee is ready to return to work.

Procedures

- a. A Request for Family and Medical Leave of Absence Form must be originated in duplicate by the employee. This form should be completed in detail, signed by the employee, submitted to the Town Administrator or his/her designee for proper approvals. If possible, the form should be submitted thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of the FMLA leave.
- b. A request for FMLA leaves of absence due to illness must include the following information attached to a completed Request for Family and Medical Leave of Absence Form:

Sufficient medical certification stating:

- 1) the date on which the serious health condition commenced;
- 2) the probable duration of the condition; and
- 3) the appropriate medical facts within the knowledge of the health care provider regarding the condition.

In addition, for purposes of FMLA leave to care for a child, spouse, or parent, the certificate should give an estimate of the amount of time that the employee is needed to provide such care. For purposes of FMLA leave for an employee's illness, the certificate must state that the employee is unable to perform the functions of his or her position. In the case of certification for intermittent FMLA leave or FMLA leave on a reduced leave schedule for planned medical treatment, the dates on which such treatment is expected to be given and the duration of such treatment must be stated.

For qualifying exigency leave, the employee must provide a copy of the covered military member's active duty orders to support the request for FMLA. For rest and recuperation leave, a copy of the military member's rest and recuperation leave orders or other documentation issued by the military setting for the dates of military member's leave.

Coordination with Maternity Leave

The Town provides employees a leave of absence for the period of temporary physical disability resulting from childbirth and related medical conditions. A maternity leave begins when an employee is medically determined to be disabled and ends when medically determined to be able to return to work.

Maternity leave will be treated in the same manner as a type C FMLA leave of absence; that is, the employee is required to exhaust accrued, unused earn time followed by use of unused vacation and personal days, respectively, as may be needed time before taking any unpaid leave. However, maternity leaves are not limited by any measure other than the period of medical disability.

An employee who uses less than the Available Leave Weeks for type C leave for maternity may take additional type A FMLA leave after the end of the disability period for a period not to exceed the Available Leave Weeks.

Coordination with Other Town Policies: Reference to FMLA and Federal Regulations

In the event of any conflicts between this policy and other Town policies, the provisions of this policy shall govern. The FMLA and the FMLA federal regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Labor contain many limitations and qualifications for entitlement and governance of FMLA leave not stated herein. The terms of the FMLA and the FMLA federal regulations are incorporated herein and will be applied in all instances of requested or designated FMLA leave.

Extensions

Upon the approval at the sole discretion of the Town Administrator, an employee may receive an extension of the FMLA leave of the absence for medical reasons without pay for a period beyond twelve (12) work weeks provided notice is given at least ten (10) work days prior to the commencement of said extension. An employee shall have no loss of accrued benefits or seniority but will not continue to accrue any such benefits during said extension. Continuation of the health insurance benefit during the extension period shall be at employee expense.

Section 2. Other Personal Leave

Written personal leaves of absence without pay may be granted at the sole discretion of the Town Administrator for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days. An employee shall have no loss of accrued benefits or seniority but will not continue to accrue any such benefits. Health insurance benefit payments will be paid by the employee.

Upon expiration of the leave, the employee shall be reinstated to the same or an equivalent position to that held before the leave was granted. Failure of the employee to report promptly for work at the expiration of the leave shall be cause for dismissal.

For the purpose of this section, one (1) day shall be calculated as eight (8) hours. The employees may use the hours based on their regular working hours per day.

Sick leave shall not be considered a privilege which an employee may use at his or her discretion but shall be allowed only in the case of necessity and actual illness or disability of the employee, or because of illness in the employee's immediate family, or to take physical or dental examinations or other sickness prevention measures.
