PUBLIC EMPLOYEE LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

State Employees' Association of New Hampshire, Inc.,
SEIU Local 1984

v.

State of New Hampshire

Case No. G-0115-6
Decision No. 2013-236

Order

In accordance with N.H. Admin. Rule Pub 203.01 (d) the State's Application to Compel Witnesses and Production of Documents is granted to the extent that the PELRB will prepare Subpoenas Duces Tecum directed to John Howard, Diana Lacey, and Charles McMahon requiring their appearance at the November 26, 2013 hearing and requiring that they bring with them and produce at said time, the following documents (including copies of electronic files) in their possession, custody or control:

A. E-mails or other forms of written communication between John Howard and any employee or member of the SEA, 207 North Main Street, Concord New Hampshire 03301 regarding:

1. The scheduling of the arbitration concerning grievances filed with the State in this matter relating to shift differential; and
2. The scope and/or subject matter of the arbitration of the grievances filed with the State relative to shift differential in this matter.

B. Any and all documents, in whatever form, electronic or hard copy, regarding:

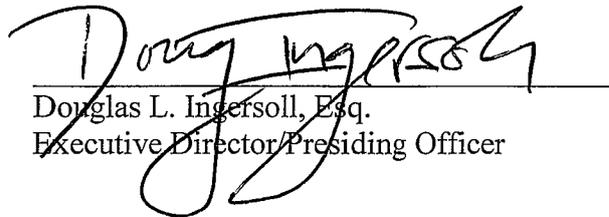

1. The scheduling of the arbitration regarding the grievances filed with the State relative to shift differential in this matter; and

2. The scope and/or subject matter of the arbitration regarding the grievances filed with the State relative to shift differential in this matter.

The State's application request is otherwise denied. However, the parties are admonished to work cooperatively to exchange documents in advance of hearing to facilitate the pre-marking of exhibits, the preparation of final exhibit lists, the determination of what documents can be marked as joint exhibits or full exhibits by agreement, and in order to ensure the completion of the November 26, 2013 hearing in a timely manner.

So ordered.
