Case No. E-0180-1
Decision No. 2015-149

Order

The Association filed an agreed upon modification petition to update the bargaining unit description and employer name. PELRB certification records reflect that at the time of certification the unit consisted of “[a]ll full-time and part-time secretaries, custodians, head custodians, aides, lunch personnel and A-V Coordinator” and the employer was the Hollis School District. See Certification of Representative and Order to Negotiate, Case No. T-0366 (May 27, 1985). Hollis is now part of a cooperative school district with Brookline known as the Hollis-Brookline Cooperative School District for the Junior and High Schools. Hollis elementary schools are still covered by the Hollis School District. The parties agree that the unit description should be updated to read as follows:

Hollis-Brookline Cooperative School District: All full and part time secretaries, para-educators, receptionists, office or clerical assistants, library or media assistants, instructional assistants, custodians, food service workers, grounds and maintenance personnel, registrar, and audio-visual technicians.

Hollis School District: All full and part time secretaries, para-educators, receptionists, office or clerical assistants, library or media assistants, instructional assistants, custodians, food service workers, grounds and maintenance personnel, and audio-visual technicians.

The petition is granted and a modification order will issue.
