

Classified Employee Petitioners of the New Hampshire Office of Information Technology v. State of New Hampshire and Classified Employee Petitioners of the New Hampshire Office of Information Technology v. State of New Hampshire and SEA/SEIU Local 1984, Decision No. 2007-017 (Case No. S-0411-1 and Case No. S-0411-2)

Complainant filed unfair labor practice complaint against state and union claiming that modification petition was fraudulent, that state misrepresented that election by majority of employees was conducted, that union and state conspired to coerce and intimidate employees into joining union. PELRB granted respondents' motions to dismiss finding that complainant lacked standing to bring complaints as he failed to demonstrate any legal harm suffered by him.

Disclaimer: This summary is intended to provide a brief description of the issues in this case and the outcome. The summary is not a substitute for the decision, should not be relied upon in place of the decision, and should not be cited as controlling or relevant authority in PELRB proceedings or other proceedings.