

EXHIBIT 63

2009 International Plumbing Code

New Amendment Proposal IPC 2009 – Adopt Appendix F

CURRENT LANGUAGE:

This appendix was not previously adopted.

PROPOSED CHANGE:

Adopt Appendix F – Structural Safety

REASON:

Reason for Adopting Appendix F: These limitations to structural changes to accommodate plumbing systems shall be required to be followed per code. These cutting/notching rules are printed in the IRC and IBC; a plumbing contractor may not have immediate access to those codes.
