Climate Change

- A dark blue, textured collage of images related to climate change. It includes silhouettes of people standing in a field, a white pickup truck parked in front of a building, a person walking through a field, and a large, dark, abstract shape that could represent a storm or a large object. The collage is used as a background for the central text.
- It's Real
 - It's Happening
 - Take it Seriously
 - It Affects Everything We Do
