

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MERRIMACK, SS

SUPERIOR COURT

Docket No. 08-E-0053

In the Matter of the Liquidation of Noble Trust Company

JOINT MOTION OF LIQUIDATOR AND CREDIT SUISSE
ASSENTED TO BY WELLS FARGO FOR APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT
AGREEMENT AND MUTUAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS
REGARDING LINCOLN NATIONAL POLICY

Glenn A. Perlow, Bank Commissioner for the State of New Hampshire, in his capacity as Liquidator of Noble Trust Company (the "Liquidator" and "Noble Trust," respectively) and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Credit Suisse Premium Finance LLC, Credit Suisse Management LLC, CSFB Private Insurance Brokerage LLC, and Credit Suisse Lending Trust (USA) 3 (collectively, "Credit Suisse"), by their undersigned counsel, jointly move this Court for entry of an order approving their Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release of Claims Regarding Lincoln National Policy dated as of March 25, 2013 (the "Settlement Agreement").¹ This motion has been assented to by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo") by its undersigned counsel. The facts and circumstances supporting this motion are as set forth herein and as set forth in the Liquidator's Memorandum in Support of Settlement Motions filed concurrently herewith. In support of this motion, the Liquidator and Credit Suisse state as follows:

¹ In accordance with the Court's Order Establishing Settlement Agreement Review Procedures dated December 5, 2012, a redacted copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Parties wishing to review the confidential affidavit submitted in support of this motion and the unredacted Settlement Agreement may obtain copies of such documents by contacting the Office of the Liquidator and following the Court approved procedures, including the execution of a confidentiality agreement. To the extent the redactions are of personal identifying information that an individual has requested be kept confidential, the Liquidator will not reveal such information without authorization from the particular individual or further order of the Court. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed in the Settlement Agreement.

Background

1. In 2003, Noble Trust was organized and chartered under the laws of the State of New Hampshire as a non-depository banking corporation, and subject to regulation by the New Hampshire Banking Department (the "Banking Department").

2. As a result of irregularities discovered by the Banking Department's 2008 examination of Noble Trust, on February 11, 2008, Commissioner Peter Hildreth commenced a liquidation proceeding by filing a Verified Petition for Liquidation (the "Liquidation Petition") in this Court, seeking the appointment of a liquidator for Noble Trust pursuant to RSA 395:1, as well as related injunctive relief against Noble Trust pending the Court's ruling on the Liquidation Petition (the "Liquidation Proceeding").

3. On March 27, 2008, this Court entered an order (the "Liquidation Order" or the "Order Appointing Liquidator") appointing Commissioner Hildreth as liquidator of both Noble Trust and its parent company, Aegean Scotia. The Liquidator is the duly appointed successor liquidator of Noble Trust and Aegean Scotia by order of this Court dated February 1, 2013.

4. On June 11, 2008, the Court entered an order in the Liquidation Proceeding (the "Order Clarifying Order Appointing Liquidator") clarifying its injunction against the insurers that issued life insurance policies subject to the Order Appointing Liquidator, to include prohibiting such insurers from claiming that any such policy either had or could lapse, terminate, or otherwise expire by reason of nonpayment of premium without either the Liquidator's consent or an order of the Court.

5. Prior to the commencement of the Liquidation Proceeding, Credit Suisse provided premium financing with respect to thirteen (13) life insurance policies on the lives of individual Noble Trust clients, which policies were issued by The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company ("Lincoln National"), as well as American National Life Insurance Company ("American National"), AXA Equitable Life Insurance Company ("AXA"), and PHL Variable Insurance Company ("Phoenix"). Lincoln National issued one (1) of these Credit Suisse-financed life insurance policies, more particularly identified as the Ronald Robinson Policy, Policy Number JJ7013496 (the "Robinson Policy" or the "Lincoln National Policy"), which was issued of record to The Ronald Robinson CS Trust (the "Robinson Trust"), on behalf of which Wells Fargo serves as Trustee and Noble Trust is named as Trust Protector and serves as trustee of a second trust which the Robinson Trust designated as its beneficiary. The premiums for the Lincoln National Policy were funded by Credit Suisse under a written premium financing arrangement disclosed to Lincoln National prior to the effective date of the Lincoln National Policy. In connection with that premium financing arrangement, Credit Suisse received as collateral an assignment of all claims, options, privileges, rights, title and interest in, to and under the Lincoln National Policy.

6. The Liquidator has contended that the Lincoln National Policy is part of the liquidation estate being administered by the Liquidator pursuant to the Liquidation Order. Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo have asserted that the Lincoln National Policy is not properly included within the liquidation estate, and that the Liquidator has no valid interest in the Lincoln National Policy. Lincoln National has made similar assertions.

7. In conjunction with his negotiations with Lincoln National and each of the other insurers, the Liquidator also engaged in extensive, parallel negotiations with Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo to resolve their involvement in the Liquidation Proceeding and any and all claims that the Liquidator on the one hand and Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo on the other may have against each other, whether related to the Lincoln National Policy or any of the other policies that Credit Suisse financed. Because Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo assert an interest in each of the policies that Credit Suisse financed, a comprehensive settlement between the Liquidator and the insurers is not possible without also resolving the interests of Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo in such policies.

8. The result of the Liquidator's negotiations with Lincoln National, the other insurers and Credit Suisse/Wells Fargo is a series of settlement agreements between: (i) the Liquidator and each of the insurers; (ii) the Liquidator on one hand and Credit Suisse/Wells Fargo on the other, relating to their overall claims against each other; and (iii) Credit Suisse/Wells Fargo and the respective insurers, relating specifically to the Credit Suisse-financed policies issued by those insurers—including the Lincoln National Policy that is the subject of the Settlement Agreement.

9. Thus, by this Motion, the Liquidator and Credit Suisse seek approval of the Settlement Agreement. Through a separate motion to the Court, the Liquidator is also seeking approval of his settlement agreement with Lincoln National relating to the Lincoln National Policy (the "Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement").² Because the Settlement Agreement and the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement each concern the Lincoln National Policy, the agreements are necessarily interrelated; the effectiveness of each being contingent upon the effectiveness of the other.

10. A full recitation of the background and additional arguments supporting this motion and the other contemporaneous motions to approve the separate settlement and release agreements by and between the Liquidator, Lincoln National, American National, AXA, Credit Suisse, Phoenix, and Wells Fargo are set forth in the Liquidator's Memorandum in Support of Settlement Motions (the "Memorandum") that has been filed concurrently herewith. The Liquidator incorporates by reference the Memorandum.

² The Liquidator has reached two separate agreements with Lincoln National: (i) the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement that is related to this Motion, and (ii) another, independent settlement agreement that concerns nine other policies issued by Lincoln National that were not financed by Credit Suisse. Pursuant to the second settlement agreement, the Liquidator is to receive a substantial payment from Lincoln National. The settlement agreements constitute a final, comprehensive resolution of the disputes between the Liquidator and Lincoln National. The second settlement agreement, however, is not subject to or conditioned in any way upon the effectiveness of the Settlement Agreement or the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement.

Summary of Settlement Agreement³

11. Under the Settlement Agreement, upon the Effective Date (defined below), the Liquidator, Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo agree that the Lincoln National Policy, together with all agreements relating to or in connection with such policy (including without limitation the Collateral Assignment, Guarantee and Insurer Consent and Acknowledgment), shall be released from the Noble Trust estate, shall not constitute assets of the Noble Trust estate, and shall not be subject to any provisions of the Order Appointing Liquidator or the Order Clarifying Order Appointing Liquidator.

12. By this Motion and in accordance with the Settlement Agreement, the Liquidator seeks the Court's authorization to act as trust protector on behalf of Noble Trust for the limited purposes set forth in the Settlement Agreement and as described below. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement, the Liquidator shall: (i) effect Noble Trust's resignation as the trust protector of the Robinson Trust and (ii) appoint Ryan K. Crayne, of Winthrop & Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the replacement trust protector in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement.

13. Prior to resigning as protector of the Robinson Trust, which holds the Lincoln National Policy on the life of Ronald Robinson, and within ten (10) business days of the ³Notwithstanding the recitation in this Motion of the material terms of the Settlement Agreement, this is a summary only and all parties in interest are urged to read the Settlement Agreement. In the event of any conflicts or inconsistencies between the summary contained in the Motion and the Settlement Agreement, then the terms of the Settlement Agreement shall control.

Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement, the Liquidator, acting on behalf of Noble Trust, shall (i) create a new trust (in the form, or substantially the same form, as attached as Exhibit B to the Settlement Agreement) to be the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust (the "New Beneficiary Trust"); (ii) designate the "New Beneficiary Trust" as the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust pursuant to the provisions of the trust agreement for the Robinson Trust; and (iii) name Ryan K. Crayne, of Winthrop & Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the new trustee for the New Beneficiary Trust.⁴ Once these actions have been taken, the Liquidator will have no further power to take any action with respect to, or exercise any power over, the Lincoln National Policy, the Robinson Trust owning the Lincoln National Policy, or the New Beneficiary Trust of the Robinson Trust. Upon the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement, neither the Liquidator, the Noble Trust estate, nor the prior beneficiary trust (for which Noble Trust served as trustee) will have any further right, title or interest in the Robinson Trust or the Lincoln National Policy.

14. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, and as set forth more fully therein, the Liquidator on the one hand and Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo on the other shall release each other from any and all claims arising out of or relating in any way to the Lincoln National Policy. The Liquidator and Credit Suisse further agree to release each other from all other claims which either may have against another, however, such general release does not include any claims that may exist relating to any of the policies that Credit Suisse financed that were issued to Noble Trust clients by American National, AXA or Phoenix.

15. Credit Suisse has paid a confidential sum (the "Settlement Funds") into an escrow account. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, Credit Suisse shall release the Settlement Funds from escrow and direct that they be paid to an account designated by the Liquidator.

16. By its terms, the Settlement Agreement does not become effective (the "Effective Date") unless and until the entry of final orders by the Court in the Liquidation Proceeding approving the Settlement Agreement and the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement ("Court Approval"), and the execution of a separate agreement between Credit Suisse and Lincoln National relating to the Lincoln National Policy, which separate agreement has been fully executed and is attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement. The Court Approval shall be deemed to occur on the date that such orders shall have become non-appealable or, in the event of an appeal(s), have been affirmed after all appeals therefrom have been exhausted.

17. The Liquidator, Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo believe the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and is the result of arms-length negotiations between the parties and their counsel. The Settlement Agreement maximizes the value of the liquidation of Noble Trust by relieving further costs and potential risk of continued litigation with Lincoln National, the other insurers, and Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo, and provides the basis for the comprehensive resolution that the Liquidator, Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo have negotiated concerning all policies financed by Credit Suisse, of which the Settlement Agreement and the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement is an independent but integral part.

18. The Liquidator therefore believes that entering into the Settlement Agreement and the Lincoln National-Liquidator Settlement Agreement is an appropriate and prudent exercise of the Liquidator's judgment, and that the settlements resolve the pending disputes between the Liquidator, Lincoln National and Credit Suisse/Wells Fargo concerning the Lincoln National Policy on terms that are advantageous to the liquidation of Noble Trust and Noble Trust creditors.

19. Accordingly, the Liquidator believes that approval of the Settlement Agreement is in the best interests of Noble Trust, its creditors, and all parties in interest. See, In re Liquidation of The Home Ins. Co., 154 N.H. 472, 489-90 (2006).

LINCOLN NATIONAL POLICY

This Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release of Claims Regarding Lincoln National Policy (the "Agreement") is made by and between Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Credit Suisse Premium Finance LLC, Credit Suisse Management LLC, CSFB Private Insurance Brokerage LLC, and Credit Suisse Lending Trust (USA) 3 (collectively "Credit Suisse"), Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"), and Glenn A. Perlow, New Hampshire Bank Commissioner, in his capacity as liquidator of Noble Trust Company ("NTC") and Aegean Scotia Holdings, LLC ("Aegean") (the "Liquidator") (Credit Suisse, Wells Fargo, and the Liquidator shall each be referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, NTC was chartered by the New Hampshire Banking Department as a New Hampshire non-depository trust company on September 11, 2003;

WHEREAS, the policy issued by Lincoln National Life Insurance Company ("Lincoln National"), which is the subject of this Agreement, was issued by Lincoln National to an irrevocable life insurance trust (the "Robinson Trust"), as to which Wells Fargo serves as trustee;

WHEREAS, NTC serves as protector of the Robinson Trust and serves as trustee of a second trust which the Robinson Trust designated as its beneficiary (the "Robinson Beneficiary Trust");

WHEREAS, NTC's principal, Colin Lindsey, a licensed insurance producer, directly or indirectly received producer commissions from Lincoln National in connection with the life insurance policy that is the subject of this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Credit Suisse provided premium financing with respect to the policy issued by Lincoln National to the Robinson Trust, as more particularly identified on Schedule A (the "Lincoln National Policy"), and which is also subject of a separate settlement agreement between the Liquidator and Lincoln National entered into contemporaneously with this Agreement (the "Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement");

WHEREAS, the Liquidator and Lincoln National have also entered into a separate settlement agreement contemporaneously with this Agreement concerning a number of life insurance policies issued by Lincoln National, where Credit Suisse did not provide premium financing, which agreement is not the subject of or conditioned in any way upon the effectiveness of this Agreement or the Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement;

WHEREAS, Credit Suisse also provided premium financing with respect to twelve (12) other life insurance policies on the lives of individual NTC clients, as more particularly identified on Schedule A, which were issued by AXA Equitable Life Insurance Company (the “AXA Policies”), PHL Variable Insurance Company (the “PHL Policies”), and American National Insurance Company (the “American National Policies”), and which are not subject to this Agreement;

WHEREAS, effective upon approval of this Agreement and the Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement, the Lincoln National Policy will be released from NTC’s estate;

WHEREAS, to secure the obligations of the Robinson Trust under the financing agreement, Credit Suisse received, among other things, a collateral assignment of interests in the Lincoln National Policy by way of a collateral assignment agreement with the Robinson Trust (the “Collateral Assignment”), and a limited guarantee executed by the grantor of the Robinson Trust (the “Guarantee”);

WHEREAS, Lincoln National issued an Insurer’s Consent and Acknowledgement consenting to the Collateral Assignment and agreeing to pay all amounts due under the Lincoln National Policy to Credit Suisse while the Collateral Assignment remained in effect;

WHEREAS, during an examination of NTC in early 2008, the New Hampshire Banking Department discovered certain “irregularities,” which led to the then Commissioner appointing a Conservator for NTC and the commencement of liquidation and other related proceedings in the Merrimack County Superior Court on February 8, 2008 (the “Court”);

WHEREAS, on February 8, the Court entered orders granting temporary and preliminary injunctive relief with respect to NTC, its assets as claimed by the Liquidator, its creditors, and other related matters;

WHEREAS, the Court appointed the then Commissioner as Liquidator on March 27, 2008, and has subsequently appointed his successors as Liquidator in accordance with applicable law, each of whom has served in such capacity since the dates of their respective appointments;

WHEREAS, the Liquidator asserts numerous rights and claims with respect to the life insurance policies issued to or in connection with trusts relating to NTC and its clients (including the Lincoln National Policy), including legal and equitable challenges and remedies with respect to the validity, extent, and priority of the claims and interests asserted by Credit Suisse, Wells Fargo and other parties; and that such policies should be liquidated for the benefit of NTC’s estate and its creditors;

WHEREAS, Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo do not agree that the Lincoln National Policy constitutes the business or property of the NTC estate or should be subject to liquidation therein, and further maintain and assert that they engaged in no fraudulent or other wrongful conduct with respect to the Lincoln National Policy;

WHEREAS, Credit Suisse, Wells Fargo, and the Liquidator entered into a series of tolling agreements with respect to the assertion of limitations and other similar defenses and have agreed to settle all claims and disputes with respect to the Lincoln National Policy, and, as between the Liquidator and Credit Suisse, all claims not directly related to the AXA Policies, PHL Policies, and American National Policies, as set forth in this Agreement.

AGREEMENTS:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual promises made herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Agreement with Respect to the Lincoln National Policy. Credit Suisse, Wells Fargo (in its capacity as trustee of the Robinson Trust), and the Liquidator agree that, as of the Effective Date of this Agreement and the payment of the Settlement Amount set forth below, the Lincoln National Policy, together with all agreements relating to or in connection with such policy (including without limitation the Collateral Assignment, Guarantee and Insurer Consent and Acknowledgment), shall be released from the NTC estate, shall not constitute assets of the NTC estate, and shall not be subject to any provisions of the Order Appointing Liquidator or the Order Clarifying Order Appointing Liquidator.

The Liquidator acknowledges that Credit Suisse is entering into a separate agreement with Lincoln National, (attached hereto as Exhibit A) concerning their respective rights relating to the Lincoln National Policy and all agreements relating to or entered into in connection with the Lincoln National Policy. The parties further acknowledge that the complete execution of that agreement, to which the Liquidator is not a party, shall constitute a condition precedent to this Agreement becoming effective; provided, however, that the Liquidator does not adopt or endorse any of the factual recitations or assertions in Exhibit A, and provided further that such qualification by the Liquidator shall not affect the rights or obligations of the Parties to each other under this Agreement.

Without limiting the applicability of Section 2 of this Agreement, the Liquidator agrees not to assert any claims, defenses, setoffs or other actions in connection with the Lincoln National Policy, or any agreements relating to or in connection with such policy (including without limitation the Collateral Assignment, Guarantee and Insurer Consent and Acknowledgment).

With respect to the Lincoln National Policy, the Parties agree that the Liquidator, acting on behalf of NTC, shall, within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date of this Agreement (as defined in Section 4 herein): (i) effect NTC's resignation as the trust protector of the Robinson Trust, which holds the Lincoln National Policy, and (ii) appoint Ryan K. Crayne, of Winthrop & Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the replacement trust protector in accordance with the terms of the applicable trust agreement.

The Parties further agree that, prior to resigning as protector of the Robinson Trust, which holds the Lincoln National Policy, and within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, the Liquidator, acting on behalf of NTC, shall (1) create a new trust (in the form, or a substantially similar form, as attached as Exhibit B) to be the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust (the "New Beneficiary Trust"); (2) designate the "New Beneficiary Trust" as the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust pursuant to the provisions of the trust agreement for the Robinson Trust; and

(3) name Ryan K. Crayne, of Winthrop & Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the trustee for the New Beneficiary Trust.

Once the actions required by this paragraph have been taken, the Liquidator will have no further power to take any action with respect to, or exercise any power over, the Lincoln National Policy, the Robinson Trust owning the Lincoln National Policy, or the New Beneficiary Trust of the Robinson Trust. Upon the Effective Date of this Agreement, neither the Liquidator, the NTC estate, nor the prior Robinson Beneficiary Trust (for which NTC served as trustee) will have any further right, title or interest in the Robinson Trust or the Lincoln National Policy.

The Court's approval of this Agreement shall be deemed to authorize all actions required to be taken by this Agreement and the Parties' actions in entering into this Agreement. Neither the Liquidator, nor Credit Suisse, nor Wells Fargo, nor Mr. Crayne shall have or incur any liability to any person or entity with respect to any of the actions required to implement this Agreement or for having entered into this Agreement.

2. Releases.

(a) Release of Credit Suisse by the Liquidator. The Liquidator, for himself and on behalf of NTC and Aegean, and their respective predecessors, beneficiaries, creditors, legal representatives, successors and assigns (the "NTC Releasers"), release and forever discharge Credit Suisse and its Affiliates, subsidiaries, trustees, beneficiaries, shareholders, other similar parties, successors, assigns, partners, limited partners, agents, and present and former officers, directors, employees, representatives, and attorneys (collectively, the "Credit Suisse Released Parties") from (1) any and all action or actions, cause or causes of action, suits, damages, setoffs, claims, demands, judgments, or executions, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, whether known or unknown, whether accrued or un-acrued, and whether at law, by statute, or in equity, (collectively, "Claims") which the NTC Releasers now have or ever had against the Credit Suisse Released Parties arising out of or relating in any way to the Lincoln National Policy and (2) any and all other Claims which the NTC Releasers now have or ever had against the Credit Suisse Released Parties; provided, however, that the NTC Releasers do not, as part of this Release or Agreement, release any Claims (a) relating directly to the AXA Policies, American National Policies, or the PHL Policies (collectively, the "Excluded Policies"), or the premiums, financing arrangements or other consideration paid or incurred in connection with any of the Excluded Policies, or (b) that the AXA Policies, American National Policies, and PHL Policies and their proceeds (and any and all Claims relating directly thereto) constitute property of the liquidation estate. For purposes of this Section 2 (a) and (c), "Affiliate" of Credit Suisse means Credit Suisse AG and its shareholders, affiliates, subsidiaries, partnerships, successors, assigns, partners, limited partners, agents, officers, directors, employees, representatives, and attorneys, in each case of any of the foregoing.

(b) Release of Wells Fargo by Liquidator. The NTC Releasers release and forever discharge Wells Fargo and its affiliates, subsidiaries, trustees, beneficiaries, shareholders, other similar parties, successors, assigns, partners, limited partners, agents, and present and former officers, directors, employees, representatives, and attorneys (collectively, the "Wells Fargo Released Parties") from any and all Claims which the NTC Releasers now have or ever had against the Wells Fargo Released Parties arising out of or relating in any way to the Lincoln National Policy.

(c) Release of Liquidator by Credit Suisse. Credit Suisse, for itself, and for any and all of Credit Suisse's subsidiaries or affiliates, and for its predecessors, beneficiaries, creditors, legal representatives, successors and assigns (the "Credit Suisse Releasers"), releases and forever discharges the Liquidator, NTC, Aegean and their successors, assigns, partners, limited partners, agents, officers, directors, employees, representatives, and attorneys (collectively, the "NTC Released Parties") from (1) any and all Claims, which the Credit Suisse Releasers now have or ever had against the NTC Released Parties arising out of or relating to the Lincoln National Policy, including but not limited to the right to assert any claim or receive any distribution from NTC's or Aegean's respective estates regarding the Lincoln National Policy, except as set forth herein, whether relating to the Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement, the Lincoln National Policy or otherwise; and (2) any and all other Claims which the Credit Suisse Releasers now have or ever had against the NTC Released Parties; provided, however, that the Credit Suisse Releasers do not, as part of this Release or Agreement, release any Claims (a) relating directly to the AXA Policies, American National Policies, or the PHL Policies (collectively, the "Excluded Policies"), or the premiums, financing arrangements or other consideration paid or incurred in connection with any of the Excluded Policies, or (b) that the AXA Policies, American National Policies, and PHL Policies and their proceeds (and any and all Claims relating directly thereto) do not constitute property of the liquidation estate.

(d) Release of Liquidator by Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo, for itself and for its predecessors, beneficiaries, creditors, legal representatives, successors and assigns (the "Wells Fargo Releasers"), releases and forever discharges the Liquidator, NTC, Aegean and their successors, assigns, partners, limited partners, agents, and present and former officers, directors, employees, representatives, and attorneys (collectively, the "NTC Released Parties") from any and all Claims, which the Wells Fargo Releasers now have or ever had against the NTC Released Parties arising out of or relating to the Lincoln National Policy.

(e) Notwithstanding the releases set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this Section 2, each Party agrees that the other shall have the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement against the other Party.

3. Payment by Credit Suisse. Upon complete execution of this Agreement, Credit Suisse shall pay the sum of [REDACTED] (the "Settlement Funds") into an escrow account. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, as defined in paragraph 4 below, Credit Suisse will release this [REDACTED] from escrow and direct that it be paid to an account designated by the Liquidator.

4. Effective Date; Conditions to Obligations of the Parties. This Agreement shall become effective on the date that all of the conditions set forth in the paragraph below have been fully satisfied (the "Effective Date"):

(b) Credit Suisse shall have entered into a separate settlement agreement with Lincoln National subject only to the conditions on effectiveness contained in that agreement (which conditions shall include the execution and approval of this Agreement), which shall resolve all claims between Credit Suisse and Lincoln National with respect to the Lincoln National Policy on terms acceptable to Credit Suisse; and

(c) Court Approval of the Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement shall have occurred.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, "Court Approval" shall be deemed to occur upon the date that the orders approving this Agreement and the Lincoln National (Robinson Policy)-Liquidator Settlement Agreement in the Liquidation Proceeding shall become final and no longer subject to appeal, or in the event of an appeal shall have been affirmed after all appeals therefrom have been exhausted.

5. Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents and warrants to the other that: (a) it is the holder of all claims, rights and obligations released hereunder; (b) none of such claims, rights or obligations, or any interest therein has been transferred by such party; (c) it has all necessary authority to execute this Agreement (subject, as to the Liquidator, to Court approval); (d) upon the Agreement being executed and delivered, and upon Court Approval being obtained and the conditions set forth herein otherwise satisfied, it will constitute the legally binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against such Party in accordance with its terms; and (e) it has not relied upon any statement, representation or promise, oral or written, of any other Party to this Agreement except as expressly set forth herein. The Liquidator further represents and warrants that he is entering into this Agreement on behalf of himself and in his capacity as the legal representative of NTC and Aegean and any predecessors, successors and assigns of NTC and Aegean in accordance with the provision of RSA 395:9, and that (subject to Court approval) the Liquidator has all necessary legal authority to execute and perform this Agreement on behalf of NTC and Aegean and any predecessors, successors and assigns of NTC and Aegean.

6. No Admission by Any Party. This Agreement is intended solely to expeditiously resolve the matters addressed herein, and it shall not be construed as an admission by any Party to this Agreement, or its heirs, assigns, successors, representatives, agents, officers, directors, or shareholders, of the validity of the claims of any other Party to this Agreement.

7. Binding Effect. This Agreement, and all covenants and releases set forth herein, shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the respective Parties hereto, their legal successors, heirs, assigns, partners, representatives, agents, attorneys, officers, directors and shareholders, as the case may be.

8. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the complete understanding between the Parties and supersedes any and all prior agreements, promises, or inducements, no matter what form, concerning its subject matter. No promises or agreements made subsequent to the execution of this Agreement by the Parties shall be binding unless reduced to writing and signed by authorized representatives of all Parties. Each Party represents that it has carefully read and fully understands all of the provisions of this Agreement, that it has been given the opportunity to fully discuss the contents of this Agreement with independent counsel of its choice and has done so, and that by executing this Agreement, each Party relies entirely on its own judgment and the advice of its respective counsel and not upon any representation, statement or promise, not otherwise set forth or described in this Agreement, of any of the other Parties, their attorneys or other individual or entity, and that it is voluntarily and without duress entering into this Agreement.

9. Interpretation. The language of all parts of the Agreement shall in all cases be construed as a whole according to its fair meaning and not strictly construed for or against any Party. The Parties agree that this Agreement shall be deemed to have been jointly drafted for purposes of applying any rules of construction.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts and by the Parties hereto on separate counterparts, and each of such counterparts shall be considered an original document, but all of such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

Claims Regarding Lincoln National Policy

EXHIBIT A

(Mutual Release and Undertaking)

Mutual Release and Undertaking

The following Mutual Release and Undertaking (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of February 5, 2013 by and among Lincoln National Life Insurance Company ("Lincoln National"), the Credit Suisse Lending Trust (USA) 2 ("Credit Suisse"), and the Ronald Robinson CS Trust (the "Robinson Trust") on behalf of which Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ("Wells Fargo") serves as Trustee (the "Trustee") (Lincoln National, Credit Suisse, and Wells Fargo as trustee of the Robinson Trust as parties to this Agreement are collectively referred to herein as the "Parties," and any one of them individually as a "Party") and regarding the following life insurance policy: the Ronald Robinson Policy issued by Lincoln National, Policy Number JJ7013496 (the "Policy").

- A. WHEREAS, the Policy was issued by Lincoln National to the Robinson Trust;
- B. WHEREAS, Wells Fargo serves as Trustee of the Robinson Trust (the "Trust");
- C. WHEREAS, the premiums for the Policy were provided by Credit Suisse under a premium financing arrangement disclosed to Lincoln National prior to the effective date of the Policy;
- D. WHEREAS, as part of the premium financing arrangement, Credit Suisse received as collateral an assignment of all claims, options, privileges, rights, title and interest in, to and under the Policy;
- E. WHEREAS, the Policy has been claimed to be included within the liquidation estate being administered by Ronald A. Wilbur, the Liquidator of Noble Trust Company and Aegean Holdings, LLC pursuant to a March 30, 2008 Order Appointing Liquidator and a June 11, 2008 Order Clarifying Order Appointing Liquidator issued in In re Liquidation of Noble Trust Company, Docket No. 08-E-0053 by the Superior Court of Merrimack County, New Hampshire (the "Liquidation Proceedings");

F. WHEREAS, the March 30, 2008 Order Appointing Liquidator and a June 11, 2008 Order Clarifying Order Appointing Liquidator (the "Injunctive Orders") enjoined Lincoln National from taking any action to lapse or terminate the Policy, including for non-payment of premium, and enjoined Credit Suisse or the Robinson Trust from surrendering the Policy;

G. WHEREAS, Credit Suisse believes that the Policy was not properly included within the liquidation estate and that the Policy is valid;

H. WHEREAS, Credit Suisse and the Liquidator have reached a settlement agreement resolving all disputes between Credit Suisse and the Liquidator as to the Policy (the "Credit Suisse-Liquidator Agreement") Lincoln and the Liquidator have reached a settlement agreement resolving all disputes between Lincoln and the Liquidator as to the Policy (the "Lincoln-Liquidator Agreement"); and

I. WHEREAS, the effectiveness of the Credit Suisse-Liquidator Agreement is contingent upon, among other things, Lincoln National and Credit Suisse entering into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and the mutual covenants, terms and conditions set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged and confessed, Lincoln National, on the one hand, and Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo (as trustee of the Robinson Trust), on the other hand, agree as follows:

1. The Parties hereby expressly agree that the Policy, as well as all agreements related to or in connection with the Policy, including but not limited to the loan agreement and collateral assignment, shall be fully enforceable according to their terms, except as otherwise set forth herein.

2. Lincoln National, on behalf of itself and each of its respective predecessors, successors, heirs, administrators, assigns, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, trustees, attorneys, affiliates and all affiliated companies, hereby agrees and covenants to Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo, as trustee of the Robinson Trust, and their respective predecessors, successors, heirs, administrators, assigns, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, trustees, attorneys, affiliates and all affiliated companies, and all persons acting by, through, under, or in concert with them, that it will not initiate any action seeking to rescind, void, contest or otherwise challenge the validity or legality of the Policy, or otherwise assert the purported invalidity of the Policy as a defense to any claim, upon any basis, including, but not limited to, a lack of insurable interest of (or a claim that the Policy is not "in full force and effect" due to a lack of insurable interest), or any fraud or misrepresentations in connection with, the Policy, provided that the Policy has neither lapsed nor been surrendered or cancelled and is otherwise in full force and effect on the date of death of the insured, Ronald Robinson. However, nothing in this agreement shall infringe on Lincoln's right to conduct a contestable claim investigation and/or rescind the Policy should it lapse subsequent to the date of this Agreement and later be reinstated.

3. Credit Suisse and Wells Fargo, as trustee of the Robinson Trust, on behalf of themselves and each of their respective predecessors, successors, heirs, administrators, assigns, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, trustees, attorneys, affiliates and all affiliated companies, hereby agree and covenant to Lincoln National, and its predecessors, successors, heirs, administrators, assigns, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, trustees, attorneys, affiliates and all affiliated companies, and all persons acting by, through, under, or in concert with it, that they will not initiate any action seeking to rescind the Policy or otherwise seek to have the Policy be determined to be void, and they will not seek to obtain a return of premium on the Policy, or otherwise assert the purported invalidity of the Policy, upon any basis, including, but not limited to, a lack of insurable interest at the inception of, or any fraud or misrepresentations involved in the procurement of the Policy.

4. This Agreement is expressly conditioned upon the entry of orders by the Court in the Liquidation Proceedings approving (i) the Lincoln – Liquidator Agreement and (ii) the Credit Suisse – Liquidator Agreement, which orders shall have become final and no longer subject to appeals, or in the event of appeals, shall have been affirmed after all appeals therefrom have been exhausted (the “Effective Date”).

5. Lincoln National understands and agrees that, with respect to the Policy, the Liquidator, acting on behalf of Noble Trust Company, will: (1) resign as the trust protector of the Robinson Trust, and (2) appoint Ryan K. Crayne, of Winthrop & Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the replacement trust protector in accordance with the terms of the Robinson Trust. Lincoln National further understands and agrees that, prior to resigning as protector of the Robinson Trust, the Liquidator, on behalf of Noble Trust Company, will: (1) create a new trust to be the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust; (2) designate this new beneficiary trust as the beneficiary of the Robinson Trust; and (3) name Ryan K. Crayne of Winthrop and Weinstine, 225 South Sixth Street – Suite 3500, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402 as the trustee for such new beneficiary trust. Lincoln National consents to such actions and agrees that they do not impact its obligations to the Robinson Trust or Credit Suisse under the Policy, including the financing arrangements for the Policy, or under this Agreement.

6. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, Credit Suisse shall pay to Lincoln National, with regard to the Policy, the amount of premium and other applicable costs indicated in the attached Annex No. 1. The attached Annex No. 1 lists the amount of premium and other applicable costs that if applied to the Policy by February 6, 2013 will ensure that the Policy will remain in full force and effect through December 7, 2013.

7. Within five (5) business days of receiving the payment set forth in paragraph 6 above, Lincoln National shall provide Credit Suisse with a policy illustration for the Policy and, if applicable, provide Credit Suisse with ten (10) days notice of any additional premiums beyond those described in paragraph 6 that are due in order for the Policy to remain in full force and effect through December 7, 2013.

8. Each Party hereto represents and warrants that this Agreement constitutes such Party's legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against such Party in accordance with its terms. Each of the Parties hereto represents and warrants that the person executing the Agreement on its behalf is fully authorized to act on such Party's behalf. The Parties further acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to consult counsel in connection with this Agreement.

9. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. Faxed or email PDF signatures shall be sufficient to bind the signing Party, but each Party shall promptly furnish to the other Parties an original signature page.

IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT is entered into this 12th day of July, 2007, by and between

RONALD ROBINSON, who, as Grantor, is referred to in this trust instrument in the first person; and

NOBLE TRUST COMPANY who, as Trustee, is referred to in this trust instrument as the "Trustee."

For convenience, this trust shall be known as THE RONALD ROBINSON IRREVOCABLE TRUST dated July 12th, 2007 and it shall be sufficient that it be referred to as such in any deed, assignment, beneficiary designation, bequest, or devise.

ARTICLE I TRUST PROPERTY

A. Original Trust Property. I have delivered to the Trustee as the original trust property the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00), receipt of which the Trustee acknowledges. The Trustee agrees to hold the original trust property, any additions thereto, and any investments and reinvestments thereof, under the terms of this trust instrument. The Trustee shall not be required to invest any property contributed to the Trust, including investing such contributed property in an account or investment that produces income, and shall be authorized to hold such property in the form in which it was originally contributed.

B. Additions to Trust Property. I or any other person may make additions to the principal of any trust under this trust instrument by lifetime gift, will, designation of the Trustee as beneficiary or otherwise.

ARTICLE II
DISPOSITION OF TRUST PROPERTY
DURING GRANTOR'S LIFETIME

During my lifetime the trust property shall be disposed of as provided in this Article.

A. Demand Rights. I grant the following rights to my descendants:

1. If any transfers which are treated as gifts under the federal gift tax law are made, directly or indirectly, to this trust during the period prior to my death, each then living child of mine shall thereupon have the absolute right and power (hereinafter referred to as the "demand right") to demand the immediate distribution from this trust of an amount, which the Trustee in its discretion may satisfy in cash or in property of equivalent current fair market value or both, equal to the greater of:

a. The amount of such transfer divided by the total number of children of mine having such demand right, provided such resulting amount does not exceed the amount specified in Section 2514(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") (currently Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), adjusted to reflect any subsequent amendments to such Code Section), and if such resulting amount does exceed the amount specified in Code Section 2514(e)(1), then the amount subject to withdrawal under this subparagraph shall be an amount equal to the amount specified in such Code Section; and

b. An amount equal the amount specified in Code Section 2514(e)(2) (currently five (5%) percent of the aggregate value of the trust principal, adjusted to reflect any subsequent amendments to such Code Section) at the time of such transfer.

2. If any transfer to this trust exceeds the demand rights available to my children with respect to such transfer, or if none of my children are then living at the time of a transfer, each then living descendant of mine (other than a child of mine) shall have a demand right equal to the greater of:

a. The amount of such transfer divided by the total number of descendants of mine (other than children of mine) having such demand right, provided such resulting amount does not exceed the amount specified in Code Section 2514(e)(1) (currently Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), adjusted to reflect any subsequent amendments to such Code Section), and if such resulting amount does exceed the amount specified in Code Section 2514(e)(1), then the amount subject to withdrawal under this subparagraph shall be an amount equal to the amount specified in such Code Section; and

b. An amount equal the amount specified in Code Section 2514(e)(2) (currently five (5%) percent of the aggregate value of the trust principal, adjusted to reflect any subsequent amendments to such Code Section) at the time of such transfer.

3. To the extent that a demand right granted under paragraph A of this Article has not been exercised in writing by a beneficiary with a demand right by the thirtieth (30th) day after the transfer to this trust giving rise to such demand right, it shall thereupon lapse, and such beneficiary having the demand right shall forever cease to have any further demand right with respect to such transfer to this trust.

4. Such demand right shall be exercisable by a beneficiary with a demand right by notification to the Trustee, provided that if any beneficiary is then under any legal disability of any kind, such demand right may be exercised by the guardian of his or her estate

(other than myself), if any, and if none, such other individual who the Trustee shall deem appropriate, acting solely in the behalf of such beneficiary in making such demand. Any such distributions shall be received by such guardian or individual solely for the benefit and use of such beneficiary.

5. Each and every time any transfer is made that would give rise to a demand right, the Trustee, upon receipt of the assets which are the subject of the transfer, or upon receipt of written notification that such transfer has been completed if such transfer has been made indirectly, shall promptly give notice of such transfer to any beneficiary with a demand right, and if any such beneficiary is then under any legal disability, the Trustee shall also give such notice to the guardian of his or her estate (other than myself), if any, and, if none, to such other individual who the Trustee shall deem appropriate. If any beneficiary with a demand right is then acting as Trustee hereunder, such beneficiary shall be deemed to have received the notice required to be given by the Trustee as of the date of such transfer.

6. Upon timely receipt by the Trustee of notice from a beneficiary that a demand right is to be exercised, such demand right shall be forthwith honored and satisfied by such Trustee as provided above, and to this end such Trustee shall, at all times while such a demand right is outstanding and exercisable, retain sufficient transferable assets in the trust, if possible, to satisfy such demand right should it be exercised. To satisfy a demand right made by a beneficiary, the Trustee shall be authorized to distribute a share of the interest in any life insurance policy held by it hereunder and shall also be authorized to borrow against the cash value of any such policy to obtain cash for such distribution.

7. Any individual making a transfer to this trust with respect to such transfer shall have the right, by a written instrument filed with the Trustee, (1) to exclude any beneficiary who would otherwise have a demand right over such addition from exercising such demand right, (2) to increase or decrease the limitation on the value of the property subject to the demand right with respect to any beneficiary, except that the amount subject to all demand rights resulting from such addition shall not exceed the amount of such addition, or (3) to change the period during which any demand right resulting from such addition may be exercised.

B. Disposition of Balance of Trust Property. The trust property other than that which is subject to withdrawal under Paragraph A of this Article shall be held in trust during my lifetime. The Trustee may, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, distribute income and principal of the trust at any time, and from time to time, to and among my descendants during my lifetime.

ARTICLE III DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST PROPERTY UPON GRANTOR'S DEATH

Upon my death the Trustee shall hold the trust property (other than property that is payable to the Trustee as a result of my death and directed to be disposed of as a part of a specific trust under this trust instrument) in trust (the "Survivor's Trust") and shall administer and distribute the funds to the beneficiaries named in accordance with Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

ARTICLE IV
CONTINGENT BENEFICIARIES

If none of the beneficiaries named in the Survivor's Trust survive me, the Trustee shall distribute the trust property to the person or persons who would have been entitled to receive my personal property under the laws providing for the distribution of property in case of intestacy had I died intestate at that time the owner of the trust property, unmarried and domiciled in New Hampshire.

ARTICLE V
TRUST FOR BENEFICIARY UNDER AGE THIRTY

If in accordance with the provisions of this trust instrument any trust property becomes distributable outright to a beneficiary (other than a child of mine) who is less than thirty (30) years of age, equitable title to such property shall be indefeasibly vested in such beneficiary, but the Trustee is authorized, in the Trustee's discretion, to retain such property and administer it in a separate trust for the benefit of such beneficiary as follows:

A. Distribution Until Beneficiary Reaches Age Thirty or Dies. Until the beneficiary reaches the age of thirty (30) or sooner dies, the Trustee may distribute all or any portion of the net income and principal of the trust to the beneficiary in such amounts and at such times as the Trustee determines to be necessary for such beneficiary's support, health, maintenance, and education.

B. Distribution When Beneficiary Reaches Age Thirty or Dies. When the beneficiary reaches the age of thirty (30), the Trustee shall distribute the then remaining principal and undistributed income to the beneficiary. If the beneficiary dies before reaching such age, then upon the death of the beneficiary, the Trustee shall distribute the then remaining principal and undistributed income to the estate of the beneficiary.

ARTICLE VI
SPECIAL TERMINATION OF TRUSTS

Notwithstanding any directions given the Trustee as to the discretionary distribution of income and principal under the terms of this trust instrument:

A. Termination of Small Trusts. If after my death the principal and undistributed income of any trust shall be less than an amount which the Trustee deems practical for continuance of the trust, the Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, terminate the trust by distributing all of the then remaining principal and undistributed income to my then living descendants, per stirpes, and if none are then living, to the person or persons to whom the income payments of the trust could be made, such persons, if there be more than one who are descendants of mine, to take per stirpes.

B. Termination Within Period of Rule Against Perpetuities. Any trust under this trust instrument in which equitable title to the property is not indefeasibly vested in the beneficiary shall terminate twenty-one (21) years after the date of the death of the survivor of me and all of my descendants who are alive on the date of execution of this trust instrument. Upon such termination the Trustee shall distribute the then remaining principal and undistributed income of such trust to the person or persons to whom the income payments could be made under such trust immediately prior to its termination, such persons, if there be more than one who are descendants of mine, to take per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII PROVISIONS RELATING TO DISCRETION OF TRUSTEE

A. Protective Trust Provisions. No beneficiary of any trust created under this instrument shall have the power to anticipate, encumber, or transfer any interest in the trust estate in any manner. No part of any trust estate shall be liable for or charged with any debts, contracts, liabilities, or torts of a beneficiary or be subject to seizure or other process by any creditor of a beneficiary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any beneficiary of any trust created under this instrument shall attempt to anticipate, pledge, assign, sell, transfer, alienate or encumber his or her interest in the income or principal of such trust; or if any creditor or claimant shall attempt to subject such interest to the payment of any debt, liability or obligation of any such beneficiary; or if such beneficiary shall be subject to bankruptcy, insolvency or receivership proceedings, thereupon any absolute right of such beneficiary to income or principal from such trust shall cease. Thereafter, and until such time as the Trustee is able to distribute such property to such beneficiary, the Trustee may accumulate trust income, if any, to which such beneficiary would otherwise be entitled or the Trustee may distribute the same to the other beneficiaries, if any, of the trust entitled to receive such income and shall be held harmless in making such discretionary distributions. In no event shall the Trustee be required or compelled to pay any income or principal to or for the benefit of such beneficiary, and, upon the death of such beneficiary, any property held or accumulated in his or her trust shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions provided for principal dispositions at his or her death.

B. Limitations on Trustee in Exercising Discretion. Notwithstanding any other provision of this trust instrument, a Trustee shall not possess or participate in the exercise of any discretionary power granted to a Trustee to make distributions of net income or principal of a trust (i) to himself or herself or to any other person or institution which have the effect of discharging such Trustee's individual legal obligation or (ii) which would constitute a gift for federal gift tax purposes by such Trustee. The foregoing limitation is not intended to prohibit a Trustee who is a beneficiary of a trust from possessing or participating in the exercise of a power to distribute property to such Trustee pursuant to an ascertainable standard within the meaning of Section 2041 and Section 2514 of the Code, or which would nevertheless be includible in such Trustee's gross estate for estate tax purposes. The purpose of this provision is to prevent a Trustee who would not otherwise be taxed from being taxed because of such a power and to avoid the appointment of a special fiduciary under New Hampshire law, if possible, and it should be so construed.

C. Flexibility Provisions. I hereby grant to the Trustee the powers described in the following paragraphs, which powers may be exercised at any time (and from time to time) and may be terminated by the Trustee at any time.

1. The then acting Trustee may, from time to time, notwithstanding any other provision of this instrument, and in addition to any other powers herein provided to the Trustee, amend or restate this instrument, including its dispositive, administrative and other provisions of all kinds, as hereinafter provided in this Paragraph; provided, that this power to amend shall not apply to any Trustee who has ever made a transfer to such trust that has constituted a gift for federal gift tax purposes, or who is a beneficiary of such trust. Such amendment or restatement shall be effective with respect to such trust, as well as to all trusts that are subsequently to come into existence under this instrument to hold part or all of the assets of such trust ("trusts that result from such trust"). The purposes for which an amendment or restatement to this instrument may be made pursuant to the preceding paragraph are to permit such Trustee:

a. To deal more effectively with tax and/or other circumstantial changes that may affect such trust and/or its beneficiaries;

b. To take advantage of changed trust drafting approaches to deal more effectively with potential trust problems, or otherwise to improve the clarity and administerability of the trust provisions; and/or

c. To remove from the governing trust instrument any provisions which have become "deadwood" (i.e., no longer operative in the ongoing administration of such trust due to changed circumstances).

2. The power of amendment granted under this Paragraph may be exercised in whatever way or ways such Trustee, in the exercise of such Trustee's sole discretion, may deem appropriate and in the best interests, as interpreted by such Trustee alone, of the primary beneficiary or beneficiaries of such trust and of each such beneficiary's family as a whole. Such Trustee shall be guided by what, in the sole judgment of such Trustee alone, would apparently be my original intent hereunder in the light of the circumstances then existing. This power of amendment shall include, by way of example and not limitation, the power to:

a. Grant, increase, reduce, or eliminate general (as defined in Code Section 2041) and special powers of appointment with respect to part or all of any trust property (such powers may be made subject to any conditions or consents and limited to such objects as may be described in the grant or reduction of each power);

b. Add mandatory distribution or set aside provisions for one or more beneficiaries or permissible distributees;

c. Divide a trust at any time (before or after it is funded with assets) into two or more separate trusts (representing fractional shares of any property being divided as provided in this trust agreement) or merge separate trusts together;

d. Restrict in any way, revocably or irrevocably, the future exercise of any power held by any beneficiary or beneficiaries and/or Trustee or Trustees hereunder; and

e. Provide for the creation of one or more separate subtrusts or subaccounts (equivalent to a separate trust) in any trust hereunder with respect to which subtrust or subaccount more restrictive or other administrative or dispositive provisions are made applicable in order to permit some or all of the properties or interests that may at any time be held in or allocable to that trust to be segregated and transferred to that subtrust or subaccount to achieve some tax or other benefit that would otherwise not be available to such property or interest or to the primary beneficiary or one or more of the other current beneficiaries of that trust - such as, by way of example and not limitation, to permit:

(1) Such property, interest, or beneficiary to qualify for any governmental or tax benefit, generation-skipping transfer tax exemption or Code Section 2032A election;

(2) A disclaimer to be made;

(3) Shares of S corporation stock to be held in a subaccount that satisfies the statutory requirements of a qualifying stockholder; or

(4) Certain property or assets of the trust to be disposed of in a more tax efficient manner or to be segregated from the other assets and property of the trust for liability protection, investment or other purposes.

3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, under no circumstances shall any such amendment, with respect only to any trust already in existence hereunder (i.e., to which property has already been transferred) at the time of such amendment:

a. Diminish or eliminate in any way (that is not controlled by the beneficiary) any enforceable right any beneficiary may already have (under the then terms of this instrument) to receive the income or principal of any trust, currently or at any time in the future; however, to the extent that an amendment benefits or grants a power to any beneficiary of a trust, it may diminish or eliminate the rights of one or more beneficiaries to receive in the future the income or principal of that trust or of any trusts that result from that trust;

b. Reduce in any way the restrictions or limitations on:

- Paragraph; or
- (1) Fiduciary actions as set forth in this agreement;
 - (2) The Trustee's limited power of amendment under this
- trustee hereunder,
- (3) Who (or what institutions) can qualify to fill any office of unless as a result of some change in the federal tax laws, regulations, or rulings on which taxpayers may rely, such reduction of restrictions and/or limitations will no longer have any adverse wealth transfer tax effect on such trust, any person who directly or indirectly has transferred assets to it, or any of its beneficiaries [all of which provisions, referred to in (1), (2) and (3) above, may, however, be amended, irrevocably and binding on successors, to increase such restrictions and limitations in any way such Trustee may deem appropriate];

c. Give anyone acting in a nonfiduciary capacity any powers granted herein to fiduciaries, unless, as a result of a change in law (as described in subparagraph b. above), such amendment will no longer have any adverse wealth transfer tax effect on such trust, any person who has transferred property to it by gift, or any of its beneficiaries;

d. Result in any direct or indirect financial benefit (or grant any power of appointment) to any individual who is not at the time of such amendment both:

- (1) A member of my family (meaning any of my lineal descendants or spouse of any of my lineal descendants); and

- (2) Already a present or potential future beneficiary of such trust (other than merely through the exercise of a power of appointment), unless the amendment is to provide for afterborn or after-adopted children of any such beneficiary;

e. Discriminate in any significant financial way in favor of one or more siblings to the detriment of any other sibling(s) where such siblings are, under the terms of this instrument, to be treated in substantially equal fashion (for this purpose treating each sibling, his or her spouse and descendants and their spouses as one unit); or

f. Make any change that would have the effect of disqualifying any such trust insofar as such trust, prior to such amendment, otherwise qualified for and was in fact already taking advantage of, while such advantage otherwise will continue:

- (1) Any exemption from a surviving spouse's elective right or from any creditor's right to levy on any beneficiary's interest in any such trust; or

- (2) Any substantial deduction, credit, exclusion, or other tax benefit (such as any marital or charitable deduction, any annual gift tax exclusion, a Code Section 2032A election, a Code Section 2057 election, a generation-skipping tax exemption, the opportunity to be a stockholder in an S corporation, a significant grandfathered status under some changed law, and so on). However, this subparagraph b shall not preclude any amendment that would change any provisions of this agreement that result (or might result) in the trust involved giving rise to any adverse income or estate tax purposes for either me or my spouse or for any beneficiary hereunder, even if the effect of such change might (i) be to subject the trust or its beneficiaries (rather than any donor) to any type of income, estate, or other tax on that trust's receipts and/or assets, or (ii) result in the loss of any tax benefit otherwise available to that trust or its beneficiaries, as long as the Trustees making such amendment reasonably believe that, under all of the circumstances, (a) such change is necessary to properly reflect the original intent of each person who has made any gift to the trust as to the effect of the pre-change trust provisions on the taxability of the trust and its beneficiaries, including the consequential effect of credits, deductions, cost basis stepups, etc., or (b) in the case of an adverse income tax effect only, such change would be in the general long term best interests of the trust involved and its beneficiaries.

4. Any such amendment shall be by written instrument, executed by such amending Trustee with all the formalities of a deed, setting forth the trust or trusts hereunder to which the amendment applies and the effective date of such amendment.

5. No Trustee shall be liable for any exercise of or failure to exercise this limited power of amendment (or for a release of this power) if such Trustee acted in good faith in taking or failing to take any such action (whether or not requested to do so by any beneficiary or any beneficiary's representative). In addition, the Trustee shall be authorized, in its discretion, to advise and consult with legal counsel, and to obtain a legal opinion therefrom, regarding any potential exercise or non-exercise of such power of amendment and shall not be liable for or chargeable with any action taken or not taken in reliance on such consultation or opinion. The cost of such consultation and/or opinion shall be paid from the assets of the trust.

6. Further, in addition to the powers granted hereinabove to the Trustee, in the case of each separate trust at any time in existence hereunder, such trust's then acting Trustee, other than any Trustee (1) who has ever made a transfer to such trust that constituted a gift for federal income tax purposes or (2) who is a beneficiary of such trust, shall have the power to distribute all of the income and principal of such trust created herein to any other trust for the primary benefit of the beneficiary or beneficiaries of such trust created herein, whether or not then living (even one created by anyone including the Trustee), whether now existing or hereafter created [except (A) any trust which is hereafter created by a grantor of such trust created herein and (B) any trust as to which a grantor has a beneficial interest or any power which could affect beneficial enjoyment], provided that (i) any such newly created trust does not allow any person who is not a beneficiary or potential future beneficiary of such trust created herein (other than merely through the exercise of a power of appointment) to receive the income or principal of the property thus distributed to such new trust and (ii) during a grantor's lifetime, any such trust is governed by an irrevocable trust instrument executed prior to or concurrently with this trust instrument.

ARTICLE VIII

E. Borrowing Money. Subject to Paragraph M, the power (i) to borrow money for the benefit of the trust from the Trustee individually or from others, upon any terms and conditions, (ii) to secure the payment of any amount so borrowed by mortgaging, pledging or otherwise encumbering any real or personal property, and (iii) to modify, renew or extend the time for payment of any obligation, secured or unsecured, payable by the trust, for any period or periods of time and upon any terms and conditions;

G. Holding Property in Nominee Form. The power to register and hold any securities or other property in the name of a nominee or in any other form without disclosure of the fiduciary relationship, or to hold the same unregistered in such form that they will pass by delivery, but no such registration or holding shall relieve the Trustee from responsibility for the acts of the nominee;

H. Exercise of Security Rights. With regard to securities, including stocks, bonds and any evidence of indebtedness, the power (i) to vote any such securities in person or by special, limited or general proxy at any shareholders' meeting, with or without the power of substitution, (ii) to consent to or participate in any contract, lease, mortgage, foreclosure, voting trust, purchase, sale or other action by any corporation, company or association, (iii) to consent to, participate in, facilitate or implement any plan of incorporation, reincorporation, reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment or other similar plan with respect to any such corporation, company or association, and (iv) to exercise all options, rights and privileges, including the exercise or sale of conversion, subscription or other rights of whatever nature pertaining to any such securities and to subscribe for additional securities or other property;

I. Banking Transactions. The power (i) to open, deposit cash or other assets to the credit of and maintain one or more checking, savings, cash, margin or other account in any banking, trust, brokerage or investment institution, including any corporate Trustee, (ii) to exercise any right, option, or privilege pertaining to any such account, and (iii) to lease one or more safe deposit boxes for safekeeping of trust assets;

M. Dealing With Estates and Trusts. The power to sell any property to, or to purchase any property from, any other trust created hereunder or created by me during life, or my estate or the estate of any descendant of mine, or any trust created by any descendant of mine by will or during life, at the fair market value thereof, or to lend money to any such estate or trust at an adequate rate of interest and with adequate security, as determined by the Trustee, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Trustee of any of such other trusts or as an Executor of any such estates and as Trustee hereunder;

N. Division or Distribution of Assets. Whenever authorized or directed to divide or distribute trust property, the power to make such division or distribution (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary sum) in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest in such property, or partly in cash and partly in specific property, without obligation to make pro rata distributions of specific assets and without liability for, or obligation to make compensating adjustments by reason of, disproportionate distributions of unrealized gain for income tax purposes, except that any assets so distributed in kind shall be valued at their date or dates of distribution values;

O. Credits or Charges to Income and Principal. Subject to the provisions of paragraph P of this Article, the power to determine whether items should be charged or credited to income or principal, or be apportioned between income and principal, including without limitation the power to amortize or not to amortize any part or all of any premium or discount, to treat any part or all of any profit resulting from the sale or other disposition of any property, whether purchased at a premium or at a discount, as income or principal or apportion the same between income and principal, to apportion the sales price of any property between income and principal, including the proceeds of the sale of timber, minerals and other natural resources, to treat any dividend or other distribution on any investment as income or principal or apportion the same between income or principal, to charge any expense against income or principal or apportion the same and to provide or not to provide a reasonable reserve against depreciation, depletion or obsolescence on any property subject to depreciation, depletion or obsolescence. The Trustee shall exercise the Trustee's discretion in such manner as the Trustee may reasonably deem equitable and just under all the circumstances and regardless of whether such items are charged or credited to or apportioned between income and principal as provided in the New Hampshire Uniform Trust Code; provided, however, the Trustee shall credit the receipt of all proceeds from borrowings to principal and shall not credit any such receipts to income.

P. Accumulation of Income. To the extent that the Trustee is not required to make distributions of the net income of a trust, the Trustee shall accumulate such income in a separate account, accounting for such undistributed income separately from the principal of the trust and in no event shall the Trustee add such accumulated income to the principal of the trust.

Q. Distributions to or for the Benefit of Beneficiaries. Whenever authorized or directed to distribute property to a beneficiary, whether or not under a legal disability, the power to distribute such property, unless otherwise directed, (i) directly to such beneficiary, including the transfer of property into such beneficiary's name as by depositing cash or registering securities in his or her name, (ii) to the custodian of such beneficiary under a uniform gifts or transfers to minors act, (iii) to the legal or natural guardian of the person or property of such beneficiary, or (iv) to any other person, firm or institution for the benefit of such beneficiary, and the receipt of any of the foregoing shall constitute a full acquittance of the Trustee to the extent of the distribution so made;

R. Holding Assets of Separate Trusts Undivided. The power to acquire, receive, hold and administer property of two or more separate shares or trusts undivided so long as separate accounts are maintained at all times for each of the separate shares or trusts;

S. Consolidation of Similar Trusts. The power to add the assets of any trust established under this trust instrument (except a trust which is eligible to qualify for the marital deduction in the federal estate tax proceeding relating to my estate) to the assets of any other trust established under this trust instrument or any trust established outside of this instrument and administer them as one trust when such trusts have substantially similar terms and identical beneficiaries and Trustees provided such consolidation does not (i) defeat or impair any beneficial interest or (ii) cause the inclusion ratio of either trust for federal generation-skipping transfer tax purposes to change from zero to a number greater than zero;

T. Creation of Subtrusts and Subaccounts. The power to create one or more separate subtrusts or subaccounts (equivalent to a separate trust, including trusts with their own separate tax identity) in any trust hereunder, revocable or irrevocable, in order to permit some or all of the properties or interests that may at any time be held in or allocable to that trust to be segregated and transferred to that subtrust or subaccount to achieve some tax, investment or other benefit that would otherwise not be available to such property or interest or to the primary beneficiary or one or more of the other current beneficiaries of that trust;

U. Separation of Trust Property for Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax "GST" Purposes. The power (i) to separate trust property into separate shares or trusts either before or after an allocation of GST exemption to a separate share or trust so that the separate share or trust will be created having property equal in value to the amount of the exemption as of the valuation date for such allocation in order that such separate share or trust will have an inclusion ratio of zero, (ii) to hold as a separate trust property to be added to another trust which is subject to different treatment for GST purposes than the property which is to be added to it and to administer such trust, as well as the trust to which the property would have been added, in accordance with the provisions that would have governed the combined trusts, and (iii) to divide any trust into separate fractional shares and hold such shares in separate trusts with identical terms whenever the division may facilitate avoiding or delaying GST, including the division of a trust with an inclusion ratio of more than zero into two separate trusts, one with an inclusion ratio of one and the other with an inclusion ratio of zero;

V. Execution and Delivery of Documents. The power to execute and deliver, modify, or rescind any and all instruments, under seal or otherwise, including, but not limited to, contracts, deeds, leases and notes, to carry out the administration of the trust;

X. Tax Elections. The power to make any election permitted by any tax law, including the authority to elect or maintain S corporation status for federal tax purposes for any corporation in which the trust may own an interest, if the Trustee determines such election is for the combined best interest of the trust and the beneficiaries thereof, and shall be authorized to make, or not to make, such adjustments among the interested parties or shares as such Trustee may reasonably deem equitable and just under all the circumstances. The Trustee shall also be authorized, but not required, for tax, administrative or investment purposes to divide any trust established hereunder at any time, based upon the fair market values of the trust property at the time of such division, into two or more separate trusts, the dispositive provisions of which shall be identical to those applicable to the trust prior to any such division, and to consolidate any trust established hereunder with any other trust having substantially identical provisions for the same beneficiary or beneficiaries if such consolidation does not (i) defeat or impair any beneficial interest or (ii) cause the inclusion ratio of either trust for federal generation-skipping transfer tax purposes to change from zero to a number greater than zero. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee may divide any trust to be established hereunder into separate trusts consisting of portions that would, and would not, respectively, be included in the gross estate of any beneficiary hereunder for federal estate tax purposes if such beneficiary died immediately prior to the division or portions each of which for federal generation-skipping transfer tax purposes has an inclusion ratio of either zero or one or portions which for federal generation-skipping transfer tax purposes have different transferors; and

Y. Indemnification. The Trustee (and every present or former officer, employee and affiliate of the Trustee) shall not be liable for and shall be indemnified out of the principal and income of the trust against the consequences (including legal and other expenses) of any act or omission of itself or any agent, delegate or adviser, whether affiliated or unaffiliated, or any answer to any inquiries or generally any breach of any duty or trust unless it shall constitute fraud on the part of the Trustee or shall prove to have been made, given, or omitted in bad faith or with a sufficient absence of care to constitute reckless indifference on the part of the Trustee itself or its officers or employees of the duties and obligations imposed by this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX
SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO LIFE INSURANCE

The following provisions relate to life insurance policies owned by the trust:

A. Acquisition and Maintenance of Life Insurance Policies. The Trustee is authorized to apply for and maintain one or more insurance policies as an investment and to hold them in accordance with the provisions of this Trust. I also explicitly acknowledge and authorize the Trustee and its affiliates, related entities, and officers to act as agent for the acquisition of life policies for this trust, to be paid commissions for doing so, and waive any conflict-of-interest this may create.

1. As to each insurance policy owned by the Trustee, whether purchased by the Trustee or transferred to the Trustee:

(a) The Trustee shall have all the rights of an absolute owner, including the right to borrow money upon the insurance policy, to enter into any "split-dollar" arrangement with respect to the insurance policy, to collaterally assign any insurance policy benefits pursuant thereto and to terminate any such arrangement by "roll-out" or otherwise, to effect a change of beneficiary, to exercise all conversion rights, to hypothecate the same to secure any loans, to receive all dividends, refunds, disability payments, cash surrender values or other payments which may accrue or be made during my life, to receive and exercise all benefits and privileges with respect thereto, and generally to exercise all rights of an owner of the insurance policy. The Trustee is authorized to execute all necessary documents with respect to the insurance policy, including receipts and releases to the insurer.

(b) The Trustee is authorized, but is under no obligation, to pay the premiums, dues, assessments or other charges which become due and payable with respect to the insurance policy. The Trustee shall not be obligated to see that such payments are made by any person, or to notify me or any other person that such payments are or will become due, and the Trustee shall be under no liability to anyone in case such premiums, dues, assessments or other charges are not paid, or for any result of the failure to make such payments.

(c) The Trustee shall have no duty (i) to monitor the financial stability of any insurance company that has issued the insurance policy, and the Trustee shall not be liable to any person by reason of the insolvency of any issuer of the insurance policy except to the extent that applicable law imposes such obligations or liabilities; (ii) to monitor the investment performance or other features of a insurance policy or to compare such performance or features to that of other available insurance policy; or (iii) to diversify a trust's holdings that consist of a insurance policy or insurance policies (or any interest received in exchange for an assignment of an interest in a insurance policy), either by acquiring additional insurance policy or by acquiring other types of assets, and the Trustee is authorized to hold the entire trust in a single insurance policy issued by one carrier.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, I specifically prohibit the Trustee from using the income or accumulated income of the trust for the payment of premiums on policies of insurance on my life or the life of my wife.

2. Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is expressly authorized (but is under no obligation) to enter into a premium finance transaction involving the acquisition of an insurance policy.

B. Restrictions Concerning Life Insurance Policies. Notwithstanding the foregoing,

1. If an income beneficiary has a power to appoint trust property, such power shall not be applicable to any policy on such beneficiary's life, and such policy and its proceeds shall be disposed of as if the power had not been exercised with respect to such policy or its proceeds;

2. An individual Trustee whose life is insured shall have no right, but the other Trustee or Trustees, if any, shall have the sole right to exercise the powers of a Trustee concerning any such policy, including the exercise of any incidents of ownership with respect to such policy.

C. Collection of Death Benefits. Following my death, the Trustee shall collect any and all death benefits and other property to be distributed to the Trustee by reason of such death; provided the Trustee shall not be required to institute proceedings to collect such benefits without indemnification satisfactory to the Trustee for any resulting expense, including, without limitation, counsel fees. In the collection of the proceeds payable under any life insurance policies, payment to and receipt by the Trustee shall be a full discharge of the liability of any insurance company, and any such company need not take notice of this instrument or see to the application of any such payment by the Trustee.

ARTICLE X
SPECIAL PROVISIONS TO DELAY DISTRIBUTION

It is my intent that after my death, the trust property be available to lend money to my estate and to purchase real or personal property from my estate. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of this trust instrument, the Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, delay distributing trust assets after my death until the administration of my estate is completed.

ARTICLE XI
SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE AND OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The procedure for resignation of the then acting Trustee of any separate trust without court order and for the appointment of a successor Trustee without court order, as well as other administrative provisions relating to the Trustee, shall be as follows:

A. Resignation of Trustee. A Trustee shall have the right to resign at any time by giving written notice to his or her co-Trustee or the successor Trustee designated below or, if none, to the person or persons designated below who are authorized to appoint a successor Trustee. Such resignation shall become effective upon delivery of the resignation to the other then acting Trustee or Trustees, if any, and, if none, acceptance of the trusteeship by a successor Trustee.

B. Appointment of Successor Trustee. If the last then acting Trustee (or any successor thereto appointed as provided herein) fails or ceases to act as Trustee (the "retiring Trustee"), a successor Trustee may be appointed as follows:

1. A majority of the beneficiaries to whom the income of the trust could then be paid shall have the right to appoint a successor Trustee. If a beneficiary is a minor or not competent, the appointment on his or her behalf may be made by a person (other than me) who is (i) the guardian of the beneficiary's estate or, if none, (ii) a parent of the beneficiary or, if no such parent is living and competent, (iii) the guardian of the person of the beneficiary.

2. Any successor Trustee appointed pursuant to this Article must be (i) an association, a corporation or a company qualified to exercise trust powers or (ii) an individual (other than me or my spouse), and under no circumstances shall I or my spouse have the power to appoint a successor Trustee.

3. The appointment of any successor Trustee shall be effected by an instrument which has been signed by the person or persons having the right of such appointment and which has been delivered to such successor Trustee and to the then acting Trustee, if any. A retiring Trustee shall have the right to make such appointment by last will or codicil thereto, making reference to the power to appoint a Trustee, if the vacancy occurs as a result of the death of such retiring Trustee.

C. Appointment of Co-Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Article to the contrary, any then acting Trustee shall have the right to appoint a co-Trustee. The appointing Trustee shall have the right to remove such appointed co-Trustee at any time by giving written notice of such removal to the co-Trustee.

D. No Requirement of Successor Trustee to Audit. No successor Trustee shall be required to review or audit the accounts and transactions or otherwise to inquire into any act or omission of any predecessor Trustee or to assert any claim against such predecessor or his or her estate and shall not be liable for any acts or omissions of any predecessor Trustee.

E. Powers of Successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee may exercise all the powers and authority conferred upon the original Trustee, including the right to resign.

F. Exercise of Powers by Co-Trustees. Whenever two or more Trustees are acting under this trust instrument, any individual Trustee shall have the power without court order at any time and from time to time to delegate to the other Trustee or Trustees any or all of the Trustee's powers as co-Trustee. The power of delegation shall be exercised by the Trustee by delivery to the other Trustee or Trustees of written notice specifying the powers delegated. Such delegation shall remain effective for the time specified in the notice or until earlier termination by the delegating Trustee by delivery to the other Trustee or Trustees of written notice of termination. The delegating Trustee shall not be liable with respect to the exercise or nonexercise of powers delegated during the period of delegation.

G. Other Provisions Regarding Trustee.

1. No Trustee acting hereunder who is a natural person shall be entitled to receive compensation for his or her services as Trustee hereunder, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for any out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of the trust. A corporate Trustee may receive compensation for its services in accordance with its published schedule of fees in effect at the time the services under this trust instrument are rendered or as provided in a separate fee agreement. Until my death, Noble Trust Company shall receive an annual fee of $1,500 to administer the trust so long as it is Trustee, such fee to be collected solely from the assets of the trust. Noble Trust Company may not be removed as Trustee during my life except in the event of their bankruptcy, dissolution, voluntary resignation or removal by a court of competent jurisdiction. If Noble Trust Company is removed as Trustee by any means, except in the event of their bankruptcy, dissolution, voluntary resignation or removal by a court of competent jurisdiction and Noble Trust Company has at any time extended financing to the trust in connection with the acquisition and maintenance of life insurance policies, they shall be entitled to a termination fee equal to five (5%) percent of the trust's fair market value as of the date of Noble Trust Company's removal as Trustee.

2. No bond or other security shall be required from any Trustee. Any Trustee may act without qualifying before any court or filing with any court any inventory, accounting or other report relating to the administration of the trust unless otherwise required by law to do so.

3. No person or institution dealing with the Trustee shall be required to see to the application of any money or other property delivered to the Trustee or to inquire into the necessity or propriety of any action taken or not taken by the Trustee.

4. The Trustee shall furnish upon request, at least annually, accounts of receipts and disbursements of trust property to each beneficiary to whom income of the trust could then be paid who is not under any legal disability and to each person (other than a governmental authority) having custody of any such beneficiary who is under a legal disability.

ARTICLE XII
PRESUMPTION OF SURVIVORSHIP

If any beneficiary under this trust instrument and I should die under such circumstances that there is uncertainty as to which person predeceased the other, it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this trust instrument that such beneficiary predeceased me.

ARTICLE XIII
DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this trust instrument,

A. “Child,” “Children” and “Descendants”. The terms “child” and “children” mean lawful lineal blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated, and the term “descendants” means lawful lineal blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated, but such terms shall include any person legally adopted prior to the time that person reaches the age of eighteen (18) and the lawful lineal descendants of any such person, whether of the blood or by adoption prior to such age.

B. “Incapacitated” or “Not Competent”. An individual shall be deemed “incapacitated” or “not competent” under any one or more of the following circumstances: (i) during any period that the individual is legally incompetent as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction; (ii) during any period beginning when two physicians licensed to practice medicine certify in writing that, in their opinion, the individual, as a result of illness, age or other cause, no longer has the capacity to act prudently or effectively in financial affairs and continuing until two such physicians (whether or not those making the initial determination) certify in writing that, in their opinion, the individual’s capacity is restored; or (iii) during any period that a person (other than such individual) or an institution who is a Trustee, or, if none, who is designated as a successor Trustee, or, if none, who can appoint a successor Trustee, has evidence that the individual is absent without explanation or is being detained against his or her will under circumstances in which he or she does not have the capacity to act prudently or effectively in financial affairs.

C. “Per stirpes”. Whenever property is to be divided among an individual’s then living descendants, “per stirpes,” the property shall be divided into as many equal shares as there are children of the individual who are then living or who have died leaving issue then living. A share allocated to a deceased child of the individual shall be divided further among such deceased child’s then living descendants in the same manner.

ARTICLE XIV
APPLICABLE LAW

Subject to Paragraph E of the Article entitled "Successor Trustee and Other Administrative Provisions," the situs of this trust shall be the State of New Hampshire, and the validity and construction of the trust, and the rights of the beneficiaries hereof, shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire. The Trustee may at any time change the situs of this Trust, or any sub trust (and to the extent necessary or appropriate, the Trust assets) to a state or country other than the one in which the trust is established or then administered. The Trustee may elect that the law of such other jurisdiction shall govern the Trust to the extent necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

ARTICLE XV
IRREVOCABILITY

The trust shall be irrevocable, and I hereby acknowledge that I shall have no right or power, whether alone or in conjunction with others, in whatever capacity, (i) to amend or revoke the trust or any of the terms of this instrument, in whole or in part, or (ii) to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the trust property or the income from it.

ARTICLE XVI
DISCLAIMERS

Any beneficiary or the legal representative of any deceased beneficiary shall have the right, within the time prescribed by law, to disclaim any benefit or power granted hereunder. Any transfer taxes incurred at my death and attributable to a qualified disclaimer of property included in my gross estate shall be paid from the disclaimed property. The transfer taxes attributable to a qualified disclaimer shall be the difference between (1) the actual taxes payable at my death and (2) the taxes that would be payable if the disclaimer were not made.

ARTICLE XVII
IN TERROREM CLAUSE

If any person for any reason or in any manner whatever, directly or indirectly, contests the provisions of this trust in whole or in part, on any ground whatever, or opposes or objects to any of the provisions hereof or seeks to invalidate any such provisions, then such person shall neither take nor receive anything from this trust, and any gift or other interest in this trust to which such person would otherwise be entitled by virtue of the provisions hereof shall be revoked and be canceled and rendered void and of no effect whatever, and the Trustees shall give the same to those persons who would be entitled thereto under the provisions of this trust had such person predeceased the Grantor without issue.
