

The Governor's Commission on Disability
Open House Celebration
Philbrook Building ▪ 121 South Fruit Street ▪ Concord, NH
September 28, 2016
Speaker Session Registration Form

10am-11:30am Session 1.

Topic: End-of- life Decisions and the Disabilities Community

Paul Drager, J.D. of MedEthics Consulting, will speak on Advance Directives/ End- of- Life Care and the Disabilities Community. The presentation will have a focus on recognizing and empowering the disabilities community as to their individual rights that go beyond the ADA, but also, due to the ADA, making end- of -life decisions more openly available.

MAY QUALIFY FOR CLE OR OTHER CREDITS.

1pm- 2:30pm Session 2.

Topic: Applying Performance and Conduct Standards to Employees with Disabilities

Linda Johnson, Esq., a director with McLane Middleton, will address Applying Performance and Conduct Standards to Employees with Disabilities. She is well regarded by her peers and has been named as a leading labor and employment law attorney in a survey of the legal profession conducted by Business New Hampshire Magazine.

MAY QUALIFY FOR CLE OR OTHER CREDITS

RESERVATION FORM FOR SPEAKER SESSIONS

CERTIFICATES WILL BE AVAILABLE.

Reservation for Morning Session 1, End- of -life/disabilities community

Name of attendee: _____

Organization/Title: _____

Email: _____ Phone _____

Amount ($35/per person, per session)

Reservation for Afternoon Session 2, Applying Performance and Conduct Standards to Employees with Disabilities

Name of attendee: _____

Organization/Title: _____

Email: _____ Phone _____

Amount ($35/per person, per session)

TOTAL AMOUNT ENCLOSED: _____

Please make checks payable to Governor's Commission on Disability and mail with completed form to:

GCD, 121 S. Fruit Street, STE 101, Philbrook BLDG., Concord, NH 03301.

For more information, (603) 271-2773 ▪ Louise.McBride@nh.gov ▪ www.nh.gov/disability

Please contact our office if you require special accommodations.