

New Hampshire's Accessible Parking Laws

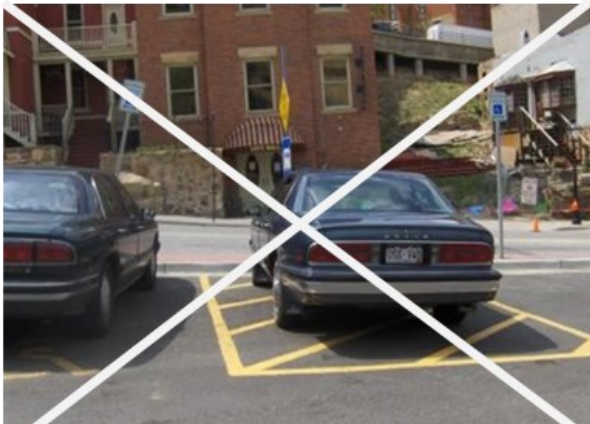

Division of Motor Vehicles
(603) 227-4000 ▪ www.dmv.nh.gov

Walking Disability Permits

- Permits are only issued to a person who has an eligible walking disability. RSA 261:88-1(c)
- Permits can only be used when the permit holder is in the vehicle. RSA 265:69-1(j)
- For more about walking disability placards, plates and privileges, visit Walking Disability Placards | NH Division of Motor Vehicles (www.dmv.nh.gov/vehicles-boats-or-titles/walking-disability-placards).
- Download an application for a Walking Disability Permit or visit www.dmv.nh.gov.

Accessible Parking Spaces

- A walking disability placard or license plate is required to park in an accessible parking space. RSA 265:69-1(j)
- Parking illegally in an accessible parking space carries a fine of $250. RSA 265:69-1(j)
- Accessible parking spaces must be clearly marked by a sign displaying the international symbol of accessibility. RSA 265:73-a

Access Aisles

- Access aisles are for vehicles and people who need additional room to enter and exit their transportation.
- It is illegal to park within the access aisle, even with a walking disability placard or license plate. RSA:265:69-1(m)
- Please remember to keep access aisles free and clear of snow or other obstructions.

For your own safety, do not engage individuals suspected of being illegally parked. Contact your local police for assistance.

