

New Hampshire Route Survey

Permit Number(s):
Date Survey Completed	Route Surveyor Name or Company, Address, Contact Info	Conducted For Whom				Pole Height				Total Gross Weight		Load's Estimated Speed
						<input type="text"/>	Feet	<input type="text"/>	Inches
Origin (Town or State Line)				Destination (Town or State Line)				Load Description				Steerable Trailer Axles
												<input type="text"/>
Loaded Dimensions Including Overhang
Width				Length				Height				Trunnions	Minimum Ground Clearance
<input type="text"/>	Feet	<input type="text"/>	Inches	<input type="text"/>	Feet	<input type="text"/>	Inches	<input type="text"/>	Feet	<input type="text"/>	Inches	<input type="text"/>	Feet	<input type="text"/>	Inches	<input type="text"/>
Hwy/Road		Mile Marker	List of overhead obstructions, dimensional conflicts regarding width or height, railroad crossings with contact phone numbers & parking/staging locations, jurisdictional boundaries with contacts & traffic clearing locations. Identify type of strategy used to mitigate each conflict.
			<input style="width: 100%; height: 40px;" type="text"/>

*Please provide any additional documents needed with a copy of a completed route survey form. ****

I, the undersigned certify that the information shown hereon is known by and is true and correct.

SIGNATURE OF SURVEYOR: _____

Print/ Sign/ Date

The submitted survey is valid for 30 days from survey completion date. Route surveys are required for loads exceeding 13'6" in overall height or loads exceeding 110' in overall length.