GENERAL NOTES

1. Concrete barriers and all their components shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with this specification. No modifications shall be made to this sheet.

2. Concrete barriers shall be cut with mechanically guided means to a smooth, standard slope meeting a 25 u surface roughness (ANSI B46.1).

3. Shop drawings shall include reinforcing schedules.

4. Concrete barriers shown on this sheet are in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

5. Concrete barriers and all their components shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in compliance with Section 550.

6. Concrete barriers shall be cut with mechanically guided means to a smooth, standard slope meeting a 25 u surface roughness (ANSI B46.1).

MATERIAL NOTES

1. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

2. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

3. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

4. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

5. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.

6. Concrete barriers shall be furnished by the contractor and placed in accordance with requirements, specifications, and procedures.