8. In addition, on that 2019 renewal application, Respondent answered “No” to question 3 inquiring about child support in arrearage not previously reported to the Department.

- g. Respondent violated NH RSA 402-J:12, I (h) by using fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices by holding himself out as a New Hampshire resident producer to consumers when he was not.

ORDER

WHEREFORE, the NHID orders and Respondent consents to the following:

- a. Respondent waives all rights to a formal administrative hearing in this matter and agrees that this Consent Order shall have the full force and effect of an Order fully entered in accordance with the adjudicatory procedure provided for in RSA Chapter 541-A and Ins Part 200.
- b. For the purposes of resolving this matter without a formal administrative hearing, Respondent agrees to a revocation of his New Hampshire insurance producer license. The revocation of Respondent's New Hampshire insurance producer license will become effective 30 days after the date of the execution of this consent order. Respondent may submit an application for a non-resident New Hampshire insurance producer license once he has secured a resident license in Florida (or some other state should he reside there).
- c. For the purposes of resolving this matter without a formal administrative hearing, Respondent agrees to a $5,000 administrative penalty.
- d. $4,500 of the administrative penalty is suspended for a period of two years from the date of the execution of this consent order.

- f. In the event that Respondent fails to meet any of the terms set forth in this section, the NHID may institute further administrative proceedings under the authority of RSA 400-A:15, III or any other applicable law, and/or impose the suspended $4,500 administrative penalty.

This Consent Order shall be deemed a complete settlement and full and final resolution and is in lieu of any other action(s) that has and could have been brought by the NHID relating to these matters. Provided however, notwithstanding the foregoing, the NHID may take any and all appropriate actions should Respondent violate any provision of the State's insurance laws in the future, including imposition of the suspended $4,500 administrative penalty.
- h. This Consent Order shall be fully enforceable in any Superior Court in the State of New Hampshire, and any actions to enforce this Consent Order shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Hampshire.
