

U.S. Department of Labor to Provide Educational Forum in New Hampshire

Concord Forum Will Include Discussion of PAID Program

MANCHESTER, NH – The U.S. Department of Labor’s Wage and Hour Division (WHD) will present an educational forum about developments in its policies and regulations, and its Payroll Audit Independent Determination (PAID) Program, in Concord, New Hampshire, on November 6, 2018.

PAID facilitates resolution of potential overtime and minimum wage violations under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). The program’s primary objectives are to resolve such claims quickly and without litigation, to improve employers’ compliance with overtime and minimum wage obligations, and to ensure that more employees receive the back wages they are owed – faster.

WHAT: Wage and Hour Division Educational Forum

WHEN: November 6, 2018
9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. EDT

WHERE: Havenwood Heritage Heights
Tad’s Place
149 East Side Drive
Concord, NH 03301

The forum will include members of the Division’s Washington, D.C., office and regional staff as well as representatives from the New Hampshire Department of Labor, HR State Council of New Hampshire, Maine Department of Labor, and human resource groups from around the state. Attendance is free, but pre-registration is required. Complete advance registration.
