Subject: Transportation RFP

Mr. Bulkley,

My business partner Dick Anagnost and I have been made aware of the March 08, 2013 RFP for Transportation. We were happy to hear that the bid closing has been extended to May 14, 2013. We are looking to enter this opportunity late and hoping that you will allow us RFP access and the opportunity to submit a bid by the closing date.

North East Freightways is a NH based contract carrier specializing in contract cartage operations primarily serving New England. Our years of transportation management expertise and strong financial foundation has put us in a unique growth position for opportunities such as this.

We hope that you will open this bid so we can help the state streamline cost and add some distinct local business imagery to New Hampshire's business portfolio.

Best Regards,

Phillip J Palker

Craig,
Good morning.
I am inquiring about the RFP that is currently being reviewed by carriers for the transportation for the NHSLC. I realize that it is past the initial deadline but was wondering if you are still open to receiving additional responses.

Please let me know if Lily could participate in the RFP.
Thank you for your time,
Jon

Craig,
One of my Managers was looking online for some specific types of wine and noticed the link on the website.

He noticed that the operation is based out of Bow. This matches up with one of our current customers in Bow now so it would be a perfect match.
