A SENTENCING HEARING WAS HELD ON 2/1/2022; DECISION WILL BE RENDERED WITHIN 15 DAYS.

“DISCUSSION - DISPOSITION:

There is no dispute that aggravated violations of 179:5, I occurred on September 17, 2021 at the Black Bear Tavern. The incident, in which John Kenny, a 57-year-old experienced bartender/server did not ask for identification of a 19-year-old man and egregious and a complete deviation of Title XIII and all laws and rules associated with it. These violations, among other factors, resulted in the death of this young man. This is nothing short of tragic. Pursuant to 601.03 and 603.03, the Division of Enforcement is both justified and required to seek the penalty of a 10-day suspension of the liquor license and a $2,500 fine for each violation of RSA 179:5. Liq. Rule 603.03 states these penalties shall be imposed for a violation resulting in the death of a person.

Although the licensee has made no admissions, they do not contest the violations and are taking responsibility for them. There are no facts to argue against the proffer made by the Division of Enforcement or points of law which relieves the licensee from liability as far as the administrative process is concerned. The only thing to consider is what penalties are just and appropriate under the circumstances.

Although several aggravating factors exist to support harsh penalties for these aggravated violations, there are several mitigating factors contemplated both by Liq. 206.02 and the proffer by Attorney Harden. First, it is evident that the majority of Black Bear Tavern’s employees had received liquor commission training prior to the incident. The licensee consulted counsel to develop an employee handbook and required their employees to certify they had received and read it. This handbook specifically discussed the service of alcohol to intoxicated and underage individuals. The licensee changed the culture of the establishment when he took it over 10 years ago creating a family atmosphere. Attorney Harden proffered that he hasn’t received a DUI case from the establishment in over seven years. The licensee had zero violations in its 10-year history prior to this incident.

Following the incident, the licensee took several steps in response: he terminated the employee responsible for overserving the underage patron, cooperated fully with the investigation to include preserving and providing all video evidence in their possession, had a meeting with all employees to discuss the incident and the importance of complying with Title XIII, hosted a liquor commission training at their establishment for all of their employees including those who had already received the training, and established a policy that requires all new hires to receive Liquor Commission training within 30-days of being hired.

Other factors to consider are that Black Bear Tavern is one of three establishments in Colebrook that offer dining and libations, employs 20 people in a region where similar employment opportunities are not readily obtainable, several are single parents who depend on that income to support their dependents, the licensee has provided employment opportunities for those whose employment was lost due to another establishment having a fire. By all accounts, the Black Bear Tavern is a family friendly environment with a focus on being a part of the community.

Finally, the facts bear out that the licensee is a responsible business owner who does train his employees to be cognizant of Title XIII. Although not all sections of RSA 507-F:6 are part of this licensee's regular practice, it is clear these types of practices are addressed in the employee handbook and the majority of employees had received training prior to the incident. I find that under the facts presented this tragic event was the result of one employee who grossly deviated from the normal culture and practices of the Black Bear Tavern. Further, there were several adults who interacted with Mr. Dostie both at his table while being served and following his departure from the Black Bear Tavern who could have prevented him from operating a motor vehicle and possibly prevented this incident.

Penalty

For the aggravated violation of RSA 179: 5, I (service of alcohol to an intoxicated individual):

Four (4) points shall be assessed to the liquor license.
2. All employees have already received the appropriate training from the Division of Enforcement and proof has been provided to the Commission. The licensee has already implemented a policy for all new hires to receive the appropriate training within 30 days of being hired. It is strongly recommended the licensee enforce this policy. It is further recommended the licensee review and adhere to the provisions of RSA 507-F:6 to better ensure the policies and culture of the establishment are followed by all employees.
3. The Licensee has already and shall continue to furnish sufficient security for liquor liability of the license in the amount of $100,000 and shall provide an Insurance Binder
