Governor Hassan's Statement on Confirmation of Jerry Little as Commissioner of New Hampshire Banking Department

CONCORD – Governor Maggie Hassan issued the following statement after the Executive Council confirmed Senator Jerry Little of Weare as Commissioner of the New Hampshire Banking Department:

“The Commissioner of the New Hampshire Banking Department plays a critical role in ensuring strong protections for New Hampshire’s citizens and maintaining a strong financial sector that can support innovative economic growth. Senator Jerry Little not only has the appropriate expertise and utmost integrity needed to fulfill this important responsibility, he has also demonstrated a commitment to working for strong consumer protections and an understanding of the need for a well-regulated financial sector to a strong economy. I commend the Executive Council for their vote to confirm Senator Little as the next Commissioner of the New Hampshire Banking Department, and I look forward to continuing to work with him to ensure strong consumer protections that will help maintain a strong, well-regulated financial sector that can support innovative economic growth.”

Senator Little will be officially sworn in as Commissioner of the New Hampshire Banking Department at the beginning of June.
