Governor Hassan's Statement on Fatal Car Accident Involving New Hampshire Public Safety Officials

CONCORD – Governor Maggie Hassan issued the following statement after yesterday's fatal car accident on I-93 North involving Grafton County Dispatcher Steven Bomba, Haverhill Police Officer Greg Collins and Grafton County Dispatcher Michael Weden.

"Dispatcher Steven Bomba was a dedicated public servant, not only through his service to his community as a dispatcher, but also through his bravery and commitment to public safety as a firefighter in Lincoln. His heroic commitment to public service strengthened our communities and our state, and I join all Granite Staters in mourning his loss and wishing Officer Collins and Dispatcher Weden swift recoveries.

"New Hampshire's public safety officials put their lives on the line every day to protect their fellow citizens and keep our communities and our state safe. Now more than ever, it is our responsibility as Granite Staters to come together to support the families, loved ones and colleagues of Dispatcher Bomba, Officer Collins and Dispatcher Weden during this difficult time."
