

New Hampshire State Council on the Arts

2023 Governor's Arts Awards Nomination Guidelines

The New Hampshire State Council on the Arts welcomes nominations for the 2023 Governor's Arts Awards. The honorary awards recognize outstanding contributions to the excellence, growth, support, and availability of the arts in New Hampshire.

The 2023 Nomination Form is online and can be accessed here. Click here for instructions on how to use the online system. Paper applications will not be accepted.

Nominations for the 2023 Awards may be made in the following categories:

Arts Education: Recognizes an individual, nonprofit organization, school district or community that has made an outstanding contribution to arts education within the past three years. Contributions may include innovation and/or sustained contributions to arts education in the classroom, leadership in a school such as the implementation of a comprehensive arts curriculum, the securing of increased funding to arts education or other significant contribution to arts education.

Arts in Health: Recognizes an individual or New Hampshire nonprofit organization for providing increased access to the arts for people in health care settings and/or with physical, mental or emotional disabilities, or contributions that align with public health priorities to reduce stigma, increase awareness, and inspire action that drives positive health outcomes for populations or communities.

Creative Communities: Recognizes a city, town, or village government or community-wide organization (e.g., Municipality, Chamber of Commerce, or Main Street program) or an individual that significantly fostered the arts through funding and/or program initiatives within the past three years. Examples include major municipal support to a cultural facility or public art program, establishment of a local arts commission or council, the creation of unique public/private partnerships to promote cultural tourism and/or significant increases in local public support for the arts.

Distinguished Arts Leadership: Recognizes an individual who has played a sustained role in the advancement, direction, or management of a New Hampshire nonprofit arts organization. Examples include an Executive Director, Artistic Director or Board President.

Folk Heritage: Recognizes a New Hampshire traditional folk artist who has made a significant contribution to his or her art form and the cultural community, reflecting a lifetime of achievement. Traditional art forms are those art forms, passed informally from generation to generation, that reflect the culture of a particular community defined by ethnic heritage, occupational, religious, geographic, or familial groups.

Individual Arts Champion: Recognizes a New Hampshire resident who has made a significant contribution to the support of the arts in New Hampshire. Contributions may include donations of money, time, goods or services that over time have significantly increased support for the arts.

Lotte Jacobi Living Treasure: Recognizes a professional New Hampshire artist, in any discipline, who has made a significant contribution to his or her art form and to the arts community of New Hampshire, reflecting a lifetime of achievement. This award is named for the late Johanna Alexandra (Lotte) Jacobi (1896-1990), a photographer of great national and international renown. Jacobi emigrated from her native Germany to the United States and spent her later years as a resident of Deering, New Hampshire.*

Eligibility

- Individuals nominated must be residents of New Hampshire or have made significant contributions to the arts while residents of the state.
- Organizations, businesses, and cities/towns nominated must be physically located in New Hampshire.

The following are not eligible:

Selection and Presentation

- Review and selection of the 2023 Governor's Arts Awards will be made by a review panel appointed by the State Arts Council.
- Nominees will be notified of the results of the review by mid-May 2023.
- The 2023 Governor's Arts Awards will be presented at a formal ceremony in the fall. Date, time and location will be announced as soon as possible.

How to Make a Governor's Arts Award Nomination

Please complete the online application here. The following materials should be prepared ahead of time:

1. A written nomination Narrative of up to 1,000 words stating the nominee's accomplishments and contributions to the excellence, growth, support, and availability of the arts in New Hampshire as they relate to one of the award categories, and why the nominee is deserving of State recognition. Please be as specific as possible in addressing the purpose of the award. Write the narrative ahead of time in a word processing program, carefully proof, and copy and paste into the Narrative field of the online application.
2. Letters of Support for the nomination. Please include 2 – 5 current letters that address the contributions the nominee has made and why the nominee is deserving of State recognition. Letters of support are required and will be attached to the online application.
3. Other Support Materials may be included that broaden the understanding of the nominee's contribution to the state (not to exceed 10 pages). Materials can include a resume, biographical information, newspaper articles, brochures, statistical information, etc. Web links may also be submitted, with clear instructions for viewing. Materials should be bundled and uploaded with the online application as ZIP files. Please follow the instructions in the online application.
4. If applicable, you may include Work Samples. URLs, up to 10 images in JPG format and/or 3 audio/video sample recordings of the nominee's work may be included. Work Samples must be accompanied by a Work Sample Index indicating the subject, location, and date of each sample. JPGs and audio/video samples should be bundled and uploaded with the online application as ZIP files. Please follow the instructions in the online application.

IMPORTANT: The strongest nominations provide the review panel with clear and persuasive narratives and letters of support, and include carefully selected and relevant information.

Nominations must be submitted no later than 11:59 PM on Friday, April 14, 2023.
