

The Lifetime Fellows

In 2004, the New Hampshire State Council on the Arts announced the creation of the Lifetime Fellows designation for individual artists. Recipients of this distinction have received three Individual Artist Fellowship grants since 1981, the year that the grant award was originated.

The following artists are New Hampshire's Lifetime Fellows:

- James Aponovich, painter. Hancock
- Carol Aronson-Shore, painter & pastel artist. Portsmouth
- Jon Brooks, furniture master & wood worker. New Boston
- Laura Clayton, composer. Hancock
- James Coates, sculptor. Lyndeborough
- Suzanne Hayles, contemporary dancer. Currently living in New Jersey
- Dan Hurlin, performance artist. Jaffrey
- Bruce Posner, filmmaker. Hanover
- Steve Schuch, Celtic/Chamber-folk violinist, guitarist, singer, songwriter, story teller & author. Hillsborough
- Gary Haven Smith, sculptor. Northwood

New Hampshire
State Council on the

