

Commissioners, Councilors & Staff, 1965~1995

Well over 100 people have worked directly for the state arts agency over the past 30 years, but that number grows into the 1000s when panelists and advisory committee members are added. It grows into the 100s of 1000s when supportive Governors, Legislators, artists, board members, staffs, and volunteers who work in the field are added. It reaches the millions when audiences, students, and other residents or visitors who have enjoyed arts activities, partially funded by Arts Council grants, are counted. This publication is for all of the people who keep the arts vital in New Hampshire. The current Commissioner of Cultural Affairs*, Division of the Arts staff*, and Arts Councilors thank you all.

Research Resources

Thanks to all who searched for news clippings, program notes, posters, photos and other memorabilia—items which, even when not used in the publication, sparked leads to other research materials. In addition to all the people and organizations credited elsewhere, thanks to: Ken Abendschein, Sharon Callahan, Bill Copeley, Michael Davids, John Dryfhout, Susan Goldin, William & Jean Hallager, Lis Henghen, Sophia Lane, Gary Langley, Betty Lessard, J. D. Lincoln, Michele Marcantonio, Carol Morrison, Judith Nyhus, Peter Randall, David Ruell, Larry Siegel, Douglas Tilton, and Ken Williams. The editors hope the archival resources, resource people, and references listed here will help others who may want to learn more about the arts in New Hampshire.
