

Exotic Longhorned Beetle Look-a-likes

White-spotted sawyer has a white or yellowish scutellum, citrus longhorned beetle may have a white or blueish scutellum. Asian longhorned beetle has a black scutellum (Scutellum is the area below the head where the wings meet).

Exotic

Asian Longhorned Beetle

Native

White-spotted Sawyer

Exotic

Citrus Longhorned Beetle

If you see the Asian longhorned beetle or citrus longhorned beetle in New Hampshire, capture it or take a photo, and report to nhbugs.org or call the NH Division of Forests & Lands Forest Health Program 603-464-3016

