Transitional Housing Unit Resident on Escape Status

October 26, 2020 - (Manchester, NH) - The New Hampshire Department of Corrections announces that minimum-security resident Michael Stevens of the Calumet Transitional Housing Unit in Manchester failed to return from his place of employment on the evening of Friday, October 23, 2020. Stevens was placed on “escape” status just before 10:30 p.m. that evening.

Stevens is described as a 43-year-old white male, 5’11”, 195 pounds with brown eyes and shaved head with a mustache and goatee. He was last seen at 5:00 p.m. in Manchester, N.H. as a passenger in a 2016 White 4 door Chevy Cruz with NH plates #478 7398.

Stevens was incarcerated on a receiving stolen property charge and three counts of theft by deception. His minimum parole date was February 17, 2020, with a current maximum release date of February 19, 2023.

Anyone with information on Stevens’ whereabouts should call the NH Department of Corrections Investigations Bureau at (603) 271-4416, (603)848-2569 or your local law enforcement agency.
