Transitional Housing Unit Resident on Escape Status Apprehended in Manchester

November 19, 2020 - (Manchester, NH) - The New Hampshire Department of Corrections announces resident Michael Stevens of the Calumet Transitional Housing Unit in Manchester who failed to return from his place of employment on the evening of Friday, October 23, 2020 and subsequently placed on "escape" status that evening has been apprehended.

The morning of November 16, 2020 the Manchester Police Department using intelligence provided by the New Hampshire Department of Corrections Investigations Unit located the motor vehicle Mr. Stevens was last seen in. Mr. Stevens was located a short time later at a nearby residence and taken into custody. The Department is appreciative of the Manchester Police Department's support in apprehending Mr. Stevens.

Mr. Stevens has been returned to the New Hampshire State Prison.
