Untimely Death at NH State Prison for Men

Concord, N.H. – The New Hampshire Department of Corrections announces the untimely death of a resident at the New Hampshire State Prison for Men in Concord.

Around 2:00 P.M. this afternoon, prison officials were alerted to the unresponsive resident in his cell and emergency response protocols were immediately started. While the death does not appear to be suspicious, all aspects remain under investigation and the Department has requested the assistance of the New Hampshire Department of Safety Division of State Police.

No further information is expected to be released until notifications to next of kin are made, and an autopsy is completed by the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner.
