ISSUING OFFICER: <hr/> William Wrenn, Commissioner	DIRECTOR'S INITIALS _____ DATE: _____ APPENDIX ATTACHED: YES _____ NO _____
REFERENCE NO: See reference section on last page of PPD.

I. PURPOSE:

To maintain citizen confidence by investigating citizen complaints concerning the operations of the Department of Corrections. The investigation will determine whether the complaint is supported by facts and whether corrective action is appropriate.

II. APPLICABILITY:

To all Department of Corrections employees.

III. POLICY:

It is the policy of the Department of Corrections to thoroughly investigate citizen complaints that involve the operations of the Department of Corrections, as well as cases which question the propriety of an employee's action.

IV. PROCEDURES:

- A. All complaints shall be processed in a manner which comports with Administrative Rule COR 201.01 (Attachment 1).
- B. Upon receiving a complaint from a citizen alleging misconduct or negligence, the complaint will be forwarded to the appropriate Warden, Division Director or Director of Professional Standards for review.
- C. The Warden, Division Director or Commissioner shall determine whether or not the complaint should be referred to the Director of Professional Standards for investigation.
- D. The employee who is the subject of the complaint will be notified in writing within seven work days after it has been determined that an investigation will be undertaken and the employee will be provided a copy of the complaint, unless doing so would compromise further investigation. Should the allegation be of a criminal nature the complaint will be forwarded to the Director of Professional Standards for appropriate referral.
- E. In cases not referred for investigation, the Division Director shall contact the complaining party to obtain further information.
- F. Employees who are the subject of the complaint will be interviewed concerning the facts of - the case.

- G. Other agency employees, collateral agency personnel, or persons who can provide credible, factual information on the complaint may also be interviewed.
 - H. Upon completion of the inquiry, the Division Director will provide a written summary of the findings, the basis for those findings and the recommended action to the Commissioner/designee. Following the Commissioner/designee's review, a copy or summary of approved findings will be provided to the employee who is the subject of the complaint.
 - I. Upon receipt of the Division Director's report, the Commissioner/designee shall take action as necessary to resolve the matter. Courses of action may include, for example:
 - 1. Corrective action through a change in policy and procedure.
 - 2. Instructions for an additional investigation.
 - 3. Referral to the Director of Professional Standards for investigation.
 - 4. Disciplinary action if applicable.
 - 5. Remedial training for the employee(s) involved.
 - 6. Referral to a law enforcement agency.
 - J. In most instances the complainant will be notified in writing of the outcome of the inquiry.
 - K. In cases referred to the Department of Corrections Investigation Bureau, the Director of Professional Standards will submit the investigative report to the Commissioner/designee.

Cor 201.01 Registering Complaints.

(a) Persons under departmental control shall attempt to resolve complaints or grievances at the organizational level closest to the problem. Prisoners and patients shall use the established internal request process, unless the situation is life threatening or there is a potential for serious bodily harm to irreparable harm may result; and probationers and parolees shall communicate with their assigned probation/parole officer. If a satisfactory response is not received, any person under departmental control or supervision shall file a grievance with the appropriate division director. All adverse decisions may be appealed to the commissioner as the final step in the grievance process. Complaints or grievances received by the commissioner's office which have not first been submitted to the appropriate division director shall be returned to the sender without action unless the commissioner decides that the situation is life threatening or there is potential for serious bodily harm or irreparable harm may result. Returned complaints or grievances shall be with proper routing instructions.

(b) Persons not under departmental control or supervision having complaints or grievances may forward them in writing to the commissioner of corrections or the appropriate division director. Said complaints or grievances shall include sufficient investigation including, but not limited to, dates, times, places and names of the individuals involved. Complaints, grievances or suggestions of a general nature shall be clear as to their intent and shall contain a request for relief desired. If said complaints or grievances cannot be informally resolved then more formal proceedings shall be instituted pursuant to Cor 202.01.
