

Center for the Book at the New Hampshire State Library

BIBLIOGRAPHY

April 2012

Recommended New Hampshire Poetry

To celebrate National Poetry Month 2012, the Center for the Book asked New Hampshire poets and booksellers to recommend books of poetry by Granite State poets. This is the list of recommended titles which are generally available from local booksellers and may be held in public libraries as well.

Boyadjian-Haddad, Sylva. Salt (Finishing Line Press: New Women's Voices Series, #83).
Recommended by Julia Older.

Ferber, Michael (editor). European Romantic Poetry (Longman, 2005).
Recommended by J. Kates

Kearney, Meg. The Girl in the Mirror (Persea Books, 2012).
Recommended by bookseller Willard Williams.

Kumin, Maxine. Mites to Mastodons: A Book of Animal Poems. Illustrated by Pamela Zagarenski (Houghton Mifflin, 2006).
Recommended by Diane Mayr.

Lagomarsino, Nancy. Light from an Eclipse (White Pine Press: Marie Alexander Poetry Series).
Recommended by Dudley Laufman.

Pedrick, Jean. Pride & Splendor (Alice James Books, 1976).
Recommended by Marie Harris.

Pratt, Charles W. From the Box Marked Some Are Missing, New & Selected Poems (Hobblebush Books, 2010).
Recommended by Mimi White.

Sakellariou, Becky. Earth Listening (Hobblebush Books, 2010).
Recommended by Rodger Martin & Betsy Snider.

White, Mimi. The Last Island (Deerbrook Editions, 2008).
Recommended by Andrew Periale.

Visit <http://nhbookcenter.blogspot.com> to read the full recommendations.