

New Hampshire Children's Authors and Illustrators
Available for School/Library Presentations

JOANN ADINOLFI

416 Dennett Street
Portsmouth,, NH 03801
603 436-5207

joann@joannadinolfi.com

www.joannadinolfi.com/school-visits/

Author and Illustrator

Description: For a complete description of author/illustrator presentations, please visit JoAnn Adinolfi's website at <http://www.joannadinolfi.com/school-visits/>.

RICK AGRAN

PO Box 245
Plymouth, NH 03264
603-536-9050

semidemiquaver@gmail.com

Author

Description: Rick Agran works with the NH Humanities Council and the NH State Council on the Arts to lead book discussions for "What is NH Reading?" and as a poet in the schools in the Arts in Education program. He will also do author talks, poetry reading and writing.

Audience: pre-school to adult

Length: from one hour to month-long residency

Fee: negotiable

ROBERTA BAKER

376 Sanborn Road
Tilton, NH 03276
603-286-4051

robaker@fcgnetworks.net

Author

*Please note: phone is best way to contact Author

Description: In her program, the author covers the stages of writing, illustrating, editing and publishing a picture book from idea through final product, and includes time for questions and answers. Workshops get children started on a writing/illustrating project that they can finish at home or at the library.

Audience: K- grade 4

Length: 45 minutes - hour

Fee: $150-$200, depending on travel time

MAREK BENNETT

93 Bennett Road
Henniker, NH 03242
603-428-7049

marek@marekbennett.com

www.marekbennett.com

Comics creator, illustrator, educator

Description: Learn the basics of creating original comics, from character design to panel sequencing, with master teacher Marek Bennett. Marek presents his own work, and leads the group in dramatic readings of comics to explore the tricks and techniques that hook readers and bring your stories to life. Public readings can include Marek's current work, and/or the work of students in the workshop.

Audience: Ages 7 and up

Length: 1-6 hours (variable, with public presentation of group's artwork)

Fee: $200-$300/day; $150 for single reading/presentation

JULIE BRILLHART

12 Perry Avenue
Concord, NH 03301
603-225-4776

juliebrillhart@yahoo.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: The author reads her latest book, describes how she writes and illustrates a book, takes questions, and shows original illustrations.

Audience: K- grade 2

Length: 20-30 minutes

Fee: $75/classroom

MARYANN COCCA-LEFFLER

14 Holt Road
Amherst, NH 03031
603-672-8991

mcleffler@aol.com

www.maryanncoccaleffler.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: The presentation is based on the theme of the author-illustrator's most recent book. The powerpoint slideshow both excites and educates, inspiring the audience to create their own art and stories. Through the presentation "The Story Behind the Story," the author-illustrator shows how a book is developed from concept to finished book. She also shares her storyboards, sketches and paintings and she makes a drawing for the library/school to keep. The presentation ends with a question-answer period.

Audience: Any age
Length: Please contact presenter
Fee: $1,000/day for three sessions

TABITHA JEAN D'AGATA

25 Alice Avenue
Hooksett, NH 03106
603-647-9993
tabadoo@aol.com
www.thesavvyclick.com/TJean.htm
Author

Description: The following workshops are available: A Story-Planning Event; Release the Muse! and A Wordy Recipe! Please see website for more details!

Audience: K-grades 8; mixed ages
Length: tailored to meet the needs of libraries and schools
Fee: Negotiable

CHRIS DEMAREST

Po Box 58
Meriden, NH 03770
603-469-3095
www.demarestdraws.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: The powerpoint presentation takes the audience through real life research and subsequent art as it relates to his books (such as Hurricane Hunters). The author also provides various equipment for hands-on discussion.

Audience: Ages 7 and up
Length: 50 minutes. (up to four presentations/day)
Fee: $900/day; $500 half-day

MURIEL L. DUBOIS

7 Colby Ct. Box 156
Bedford, NH 03110
603-472-8741
Apprenticeshpbs@aol.com
www.murieldubois.com/
Author

Description: The author's books have a strong focus on New Hampshire history. Mrs. Dubois will do up to three one-hour presentations of any of the following topics per day: 1)The Life of Sarah Hale; 2) Abenaki Captive: How a Picture Book Became a Novel; 3) What Do You Mean I have to Write it Again? A Whiner Learns to Revise; and 4)Pajamas, Tea, Dogs, and Deadlines: The Writing Life. Each talk is presented either as a Power Point or overhead program with some audience participation. See website for more details.

Audience: Grades 3 and up. Groups should be about 50 people--2 to 3 classrooms per session.

Length: 45 minutes to one hour

Fee: $150 per session

DAVID ELLIOTT

228 Kearsage Mountain Road

Warner, NH 03278

603-456-2714

delliott@conket.com

www.davidelliottbooks.com

Author

Description: The author covers a variety of topics such as writing work and revision; the collaborative process of book making; and writing exercises. Please visit website for more details.

Audience: varies

Length: 50 minutes

Fee: Contact school visit coordinator; see website for information.

JENNIFER ERICSSON

Concord, NH 03301

ericsson.jennifera@gmail.com

Author

Description: Authors are Real People--Geared for young children and their parents, this 45 minute program uses a storytime format to inform and entertain.

Personal information is shared, several of the author's picture books are read, and all questions are answered.

From Idea to the Printed Page--This one-hour workshop for elementary school-aged children (grades 1-4) explains the process of how an idea in your head becomes a book in your hands. The workshop includes a group writing activity and time for questions.

Audience: See above

Length: See above

Fee: library programs: $125 each. Elementary school visits: $500/day. (Author will do up to four one-hour presentations of "From Idea to the Printed Page" in one day for grades 1 & up. Kindergarten is usually a much shorter and more casual program with Author reading a couple of her picture books to individual classes.)

RALPH FLETCHER

PO Box 855

Durham, NH 03824

fletcher17@earthlink.net

www.ralphfletcher.com

Author

Description: The author does three or four presentations, focusing on his writing process, especially the writer's notebook. He shows the audience how he rewrites his work. The author also reads from his works and does some storytelling, ending with a question and answer session.

Audience: K-grade 5; middle school

Length: 40 minutes; shorter for K-1

Fee: $1,500/day

MARIE HARRIS

PO Box 203

Barrington, NH 03825

603-664-7654

marie@marieharris.com

www.marieharris.com

Author

Description: The author's school programs involve participatory writing workshops and interactive discussion centering on her recent books: G is for Granite and Primary Numbers. While these books—a NH alphabet book and NH number book—are written, respectively, with grades 3-5 and grades K-2 in mind, there are many discussion points suitable for older students (e.g. the making of a book; research; poetry and prose styles, etc.)

Audience: varies

Length: one hour

Fee: $750/day (four sessions); some negotiation possible.

KAREN BUSCH HOLMAN

PO Box 155

Andover, NH 03231

603-735-4207

jholman@tds.net

galleryatthepoplars.com

Illustrator

Description: The program is an art lesson teaching children how a book is illustrated. The class first writes their own class poem, which is done several weeks before the illustrator's visit. Then, the illustrator typesets and illustrates the poem. During the visit, the illustrator walks through the sketching phase, teaching the class little tricks to help them draw better. The illustrator provides pastels and works with the class to color their illustrations. Each child leaves with his/her own drawing.

Audience: K-grade 5

Length: 55-75 minutes

Fee: $675 (includes the $30 lab fee for pastels)

MEG KEARNEY

65 Davis Village Road,
New Ipswich, NH 03071

603-878-0531

megkearney@myfairpoint.net

www.megkearney.com

Description: Using her young-adult novels in verse as a launching point, Meg Kearney talks with students about how and why poems are structured, and why they are written at all. She also discusses the revision process, and gets students writing their own verse. Meg's novels in verse come with a teacher's guide.

Audience: Grades 6 and up

Length: up to three, 50-minute sessions

Fee: $300 – $600 depending on number of sessions and travel time

ERICK INGRAHAM

PO Box 321

Jaffrey, NH 03452

603-532-5678

ingraham@erickingraham.com

www.erickingraham.com

Illustrator

Description: The illustrator discusses how he starts a book and goes over all of the steps to illustrating the book. He offers interesting behind-the-scenes stories and shows things that few people get to see, like translated versions of his books. He also presents a slide show that has a vocal soundtrack with music and sound effects. After answering questions, the Illustrator presents the grand finale: the live impromptu drawing session. This is an entertaining demonstration of how he gets early story ideas onto paper quickly. See website for samples.

Audience: ages 6-11

Length: 50 minutes

Fee: libraries—one talk: $350 plus travel elementary schools: two talk minimum: $650 plus travel. For three talks in one day, add $200; for a fourth talk, add $100.

MARTY KELLEY

7 East Lull Place
New Boston, NH 03070
603-487-9918
martykelley@hotmail.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: This is a fun, high-energy program that explains the writing and illustrating process. The presentation includes lots of samples of work, audience participation and drawing demonstrations.

Audience: Grades 1-6

Length: one hour

Fee: $750 for three one-hour programs; $250 for one program

TRUE KELLEY

79 Old Denny Hill Road
Warner, NH 03278
603-456-2190
true@conknet.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: One program focuses on how books are made and how words and pictures work together. With audience input, the Author writes a story. The other program explores drawing and demonstrates cartooning tricks. The audience then helps to make an illustration that tells a story.

Audience: K-grade 6

Length: 20 minutes to one hour

Fee: $800/day; $300 for single presentation; travel expenses negotiable

BETH KROMMES

310 Old Street Rd.
Peterborough, NH 03458
603-924-8790
beth@bethkrommes.com
www.bethkrommes.com
Illustrator

Description: The format of the presentation will include: how I found my path as an artist, the process of illustrating a book from start to finish, a demonstration, and question-and-answer time. I love to gear my talk around a particular book I've illustrated that might work best with a subject area of special interest to the class. Often I leave behind a project for the class to complete with the teacher.

Audience: any age

Length: 30 to 60 minutes depending on age

Fee: $1,000/day for four presentations in a school

SY MONTGOMERY

115 Antrim Road
Box 127
Hancock, NH 03449
sy@millmoss.mv.com
Authorwire.com
Author

Description: The author does slide show lectures suitable for assemblies as well as classroom visits. The slide show topics include the following: life as an explorer-author; Encantado: exploring the life of the pink Amazon dolphin; 18,000 slithering snakes and how to study them; the tarantula scientist; search for the golden moon bear; and spell of the tiger.

Audience: Grades 4-8
Length: 45 minutes
Fee: $1,500 (negotiable)

PETER MUELLER

76 Walnut St. Apt 2B
Manchester, NH 03104
8603013056
www.StoriesByPeterMueller.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: At the end of 2010 I quit my engineering job to pursue my dream as an illustrator and author. This presentation quickly covers my 8 month journey traveling the US to learn about illustration and eventual path to becoming an author, illustrator, and programmer of iPad apps for children. The main theme of the presentation is how to achieve your dreams and find opportunities in a fast changing world. In other words, what kinds of children's books will the children of today be making!?

Length: 50 minutes.
Fee: $250

DENISE ORTAKALES

711 Shore Drive
Laconia, NH 03246
603-528-2168
denise@ortakales.com
www.deniseortakales.com
Author and Illustrator

Description: The program covers topics such as the process of writing and illustrating children's books, where ideas come from, journaling, and what it is like to be a professional illustrator.

Audience: All

Length: 30-60 minutes, depending on age and topic.

Fee: $225 for one library session; $500 for four school sessions.

MELISSA PILGRIM

96 Cottage St., Apt. 11B

Littleton, NH 03561

(603) 259-3303

author@animalmotions.com

www.AnimalMotions.com

Author, Drama Teacher

Description: In one fun-packed, interactive session, the author uses her new children's book, Animal Motions, to teach children how to put on a play by acting out the book! Author goes over what a story is relating to drama/theatre, what it means to do a play by "pretending" (using your imagination), explains 4 "jobs of theatre" (writer, director, actor, actress), does simple acting exercises to teach how to show emotions/feelings, goes over setting/stage space, reads through Animal Motions as class acts it out, has question-answer time, and colors a mini-poster based on the book (art project).

Audience: Preschool – K

Length: 30 – 40 minutes

Materials: Please provide enough space in room for children to move around safely and crayons for coloring.

Fee: $75 per session (Plus travel time, which starts at any distance over 20 miles from Littleton, N.H. and varies by destination.)

MARY LYN RAY

104 Frazier Brook Road

So. Danbury, NH 03230

603-768-3266 (for use by librarians or teachers only)

Author

Description: When the author visits a school, she wants to invite conversations about the mystery of story and the mysteries of writing. The author reads to and talks with the audience. The central things the author talks about are where stories come from, how they find a form, how a manuscript becomes a picture book, how it may feel to look at a piece of paper and not know what to write. The author will typically tell some of the stories she's written (or may be writing), something of how she writes and why she writes. She also wants to hear questions from the audience.

Audience: K-grade 5; middle school; high school; adult

Length: 30 minutes for Kindergarten groups; 45 minutes to one hour for other groups

Fee: $650 for a day (three groups)

STEVE SCHUCH

Night Heron Music
267 Center Road
Hillsborough, NH 03244
603-464-4321

info@nightheron.com
www.NightHeron.com

Author, Musician and Storyteller

Description: Options include The Author's Story; A Symphony of Whales; Songs & Tales Around the World; Music & Tales of Ireland; Parent/Educator Workshops; Artist Residencies. See web site for full descriptions of these and other programs.

Audience: Ages 5 and up; see web site for further information.

Length: varies

Fee: Varies; contact author for specifics. Block booking and grants available.

JOHN STADLER

264 River Road
Lyme, NH 03768

email@johnstadler.com

johnstadler.com

Author and Illustrator

Description: John Stadler's presentations are known for their humorous, educational and interactive qualities. Generally, each presentation consists of up to five parts:

1. John draws some characters from his books. (An easel with copious amounts of large paper and markers should be supplied for the visit.)
2. John shows how picture books and pop-up books are made from start to finish (idea, mock-up, printing and book form).
3. John demonstrates how to come up with ideas, actively involving the children in the process and drawing out their ideas on the spot.
4. If time and location permit, there can be a slide presentation.
5. Question and answers.

Audience: All ages, mostly K-grade 4

Length: 45 minutes

Fee: $250-$1300, depending on program and distance