The employee of steward may elect to have a local union official present at the this meeting. The supervisor shall render a decision within two (2) business days.
3. If the grievant or the Union is not satisfied with the Supervisor's answer or the Supervisor fails to respond within the time limits, the grievance may move to the next step. If the immediate Supervisor has provided an answer with which the Union disagrees, it shall so notify the Administrator within four (4) business days by reducing the grievance to writing stating the Article and Sections of the labor Agreement involved, briefly summarizing the nature of the grievance and the adjustment desired.
4. Step I - As soon as practical, but no later than three (3) business days from the receipt of the written grievance, the Administrator and the Department Head shall meet with the grievant, the I.U. Representative and/or the Steward in an attempt to settle the grievance. A written answer to the grievance will be provided by the Administrator within five (5) business days.

If the Union is not satisfied with the answer provided by the Administrator it may, at its option, appeal the decision to the Commissioner level. Appeal to the Commission level (Step II) shall be made within ten (10) business days from the receipt of the Administrator's written answer.

5. Step II - The Commission shall conduct a hearing with the grievant, the international union representative and/or the steward and/or a local union official on the appeal of the Administrator's decision within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of the appeal from the Union. The cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall bear its own witness expenses. Either party may appeal the arbitrator's award in accordance with RSA 542.

7. Any individual employee or group of employees shall have the right to present grievances to their employer and have such grievances settled or adjusted, without intervention of the bargaining representative, as long as the settlement or adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of the collective bargaining contract or agreement then in effect: Provided further, that the bargaining representative has been given the opportunity to be present at such adjustment.
8. For the purpose of the above grievance procedure, the phrase "business days" means normal Nursing Home administrative work days of Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.
9. Time limits as cited within the grievance procedure may be mutually waived, in writing, by the parties.
10. If the Union does not process a grievance within the time limits as specified the grievance will be considered to be settled at the previous level of the procedure.
