The Union designated officer/steward/and/or representative shall be entitled to receive from the employer all documents submitted in evidence pertinent to the disposition of the grievance.
- 7.7. No person who acted as a designee in one level of the grievance shall review a grievance a second time.

Just cause may include, but not be limited to, unsatisfactory performance as substantiated by employee performance evaluation, heinous or repeated violation of department rules and regulations.

It is the intent of this paragraph that the stated examples of performance, although not automatically constituting just cause for discipline, may be weighed with all other relevant factors, in determining just cause, at all levels in the grievance procedure, including at arbitration.

Such notice shall be sent to the chapter president, all chapter stewards and the SEA field representative. ARTICLE IX
Seniority, Layoff, Recall

9.1. Definition of Bargaining Unit Seniority:

Bargaining unit seniority is defined as the continuous length of employment in a bargaining unit position from the employee’s most recent date of hire excluding absences, other than approved Workers Compensation leaves, of more than twelve (12) consecutive weeks during the year.

In the instance that employees are hired on the same date, seniority will be determined among them based upon the total hours worked, including overtime, during the previous six (6) months.

Bargaining unit seniority as defined above shall be utilized as referenced throughout the agreement.

9.2. Application of Seniority:

Bargaining unit seniority shall apply in the computation and determination of eligibility for all benefits where length of service is a factor pursuant to this Agreement.

Absence from work in excess of twelve (12) consecutive weeks shall not be credited or accrued towards seniority for any purpose. Full seniority may accrue to a maximum of one (1) year for an employee receiving Worker’s Compensation.

9.3. Layoff

Layoffs: In the event of a layoff, all probationary employees will be laid off first without regard to their individual periods of employment. Non-probationary employees will be next laid off in inverse order of bargaining unit seniority; meaning those with the least seniority shall be laid off first.

Laid off employees shall be permitted to fill any vacancy for which he/she meets the minimum qualifications cited on the job posting.

If there are no vacancies the laid off employee shall be permitted to “bump” the least senior position in any bargaining unit position for which he/she meets the minimum qualifications of the position.

In all cases the remaining employee must be able to perform the required job duties.

If an employee takes a job in a higher/lower job classification, his/her rate of pay will be adjusted accordingly.

The Employer shall give an employee not less than four (4) weeks written notice of layoffs stating the reason for such action. During this four (4) week period the Employer shall meet with the Union to discuss possible alternative proposals to avoid layoff and/or to mitigate the impact on the employees.

9.4. Recall

Employees who are on layoff shall be recalled in the order of bargaining unit seniority meaning that those employees shall be recalled first for any positions for which they meet the minimum qualifications of the position. The right to recall shall be for a minimum period of two years. The laid off employee shall inform the employer of his/her current address at all times.

While members of the bargaining unit continue on lay-off, the Employer agrees not to hire any new employees unless:

- a. No Union member on lay-off is qualified to fill the position or could be qualified by the date that the vacancy must be filled;
- b. All qualified Union members on layoff decline an offer to fill the vacancy.

Probationary employees who have been laid off have no recall privileges.

9.5. Termination of Seniority

An employee’s seniority shall be terminated and his/her rights under this Agreement forfeited for the following reasons:

- a. Discharge for just cause, quit, resignation, or retirement;
- b. Exceeding an authorized leave of absence unless excused by management. Such permission shall be in writing. Management, in the denial of the excuse, shall not act in an arbitrary manner.
- c. Failure to return to work within five (5) consecutive days after notification of recall from layoff by the Employer. Such notice shall be by registered mail to the last address furnished to the Employer by the employee.

ARTICLE X

Promotions, Lateral Transfers, Work Assignments and Career Ladders

10.1. Posting of Vacancies:

When a vacancy occurs in a department and no employee has recall rights to such vacancy, the Employer shall notify the Union and post a notice of said vacancy on the facility's bulletin board, ordinarily used for notices to bargaining unit employees for a period of not less than seven (7) consecutive work days prior to filling the vacancy. The Employer agrees to send to the Union a copy of any vacancy notice.

- a. If an employee indicates a desire to fill a vacancy he/she is obligated to that decision unless rescinded prior to the expiration of the seven (7) consecutive work day posting period.
- b. If both employees desiring a lateral transfer and those seeking a promotion indicate an interest in a position those desiring a lateral transfer will be given preference based upon their qualifications and length of seniority.
- c. An employee who has served less than ninety (90) days in their current assignment shall not be afforded seniority rights in the selection of a vacant position.
- d. Testing (Department of Corrections)

When any position is posted and the County deems that testing is necessary for the purpose of evaluating candidates for appointment or promotion, then the County shall test candidates on the following terms: written test (30%); oral test (30%); personnel jacket review (30%); and seniority (10%).

Once tested, the candidates aggregate score on all four (4) parts of the test will be valid for one year from the date of such testing, and shall be applied to any future posting of the same position so long as: 1) such subsequent posting occurs within one year of the date of the administration of the original test, and 2) the member indicates an interest in being a candidate for the posted vacancy.

Members with valid scores at the time of any posting and who declare themselves to be a candidate for the posted vacancy shall not be required to re-test and may submit the existing (valid) test score for consideration upon declaring candidacy for a posted position.

Any candidate shall be allowed to test any time for a position that has been posted and for which the County has determined that testing is necessary in order to fully evaluate the candidate's qualifications, except as provided herein. If any candidate has previously tested for the position, and such candidate has a valid score (less than one year old) and the candidate desires to re-test for the position, then the candidate shall be allowed to re-test; however, the candidate shall do so with the understanding that:

1. he/she shall only be allowed to take two (2) tests for the same position during the initial twelve (12) month period of candidacy, or during any twelve (12) month period thereafter; and
2. his/her valid test score for future consideration in filling the applicable position shall be the most recent test score achieved; and
3. his/her most recent test score shall thereafter be valid for six (6) months from the date of the re-test.

10.2. Promotions:

House of Corrections

In all cases of promotions in the House of Corrections, i.e., movement to a higher labor grade than present, the Superintendent shall have the right to appoint that candidate who is deemed to most closely meet the requirements of the position, but in no case shall such appointment be of a candidate whose aggregate test score was not among the three (3) highest valid, aggregate test scores then presented to the County.

- 10.3. A “promoted” probationary employee who fails the probationary period shall return to a position in the same job classification without loss of seniority, wage-step, or other benefits. If the job no longer exists, said employee shall exercise “bumping” rights in accordance with Article IX of this Agreement.

10.4. Transfers:

Initial probationary employees are not eligible for transfer. Upon eligibility, when two or more employees request a lateral transfer the Employer shall transfer the employee with the greatest bargaining unit seniority unless among such employees there is an appreciable difference in their ability to do the job.

If an employee moves to a new position as the result of a voluntary transfer, he/she takes with him/her their present bargaining unit seniority. Such employee will have a special probation of six months and may be returned to a position in the same job classification and with the same number of hours as the previous position if he/she fails to perform in the new position.

10.5. Work Assignments:

House of Corrections

An employee shall be assigned to a specific shift. The Employer shall have the right to transfer an employee to another shift only for good and sufficient reason.

In the case of permanent involuntary transfer, the Employer shall first ask for volunteers. If no volunteers are available, the Employer shall transfer the least senior employee who has the ability to perform the work.

In the event positions on other shifts need to be filled on a day-to-day basis, it shall be done through a rotation list based on seniority, except as may be limited by the first paragraph under House of Corrections above.

10.6. Career Ladder Programs

The following Career Ladder Programs will be implemented: Booking Officer, Control Room Operator, Field Training Officer, Air Ops Medical Liaison, and one (1) Medical Department Trainer;

The job specifications should include the minimum qualifications:

- a. Completion of the employee's probationary period; achievement of state certification as a Corrections Officer (if applicable); and, additionally, for the Field Training Officer, two (2) years experience as a Corrections Officer (for purposes of this qualification, the County may accept suitable educational achievement and/or military/law enforcement officer training in lieu of two (2) years' experience as a Corrections Officer).
- b. High School diploma or GED;
- c. Written Test (if applicable) upon which a candidate must score at least 70%;
- a. Oral Board;
- b. Employee must make at least a one-year commitment to any Career Ladder Program for which they are trained;

Job postings shall occur prior to offering the training for the Career Ladder Program. Such postings shall include the job description, number of positions available, and number of training opportunities available. Employees in a Career Ladder position are not subject to section 10.4 of this Agreement.

The selection process for training will, at a minimum, follow this process: employees meeting the above job specifications will, in addition to same, be reviewed based on performance evaluations (which shall include attendance record and complete education and employment history). Among all employees with a similar ranking based on the above factors selection shall be based upon seniority, as a so-called "tie breaker".

The Probationary Period for employees assigned to a Career Ladder position shall be six (6) months. If the employee fails to satisfactorily complete the probationary period, he / she will be returned to the "first available position" in the job classification they left when assigned to the Career Ladder position;

Employee selected for the Career Ladder Program will receive training for the Program at County expense and on County time. When the employee is assigned to the Career Ladder position he / she will receive additional compensation in the amount of two dollars ($2.00) per hour for all hours worked, including time worked at regular Corrections Officer duties;

The Parties agree that employees shall not be allowed to serve in two Career Ladder positions at the same time.

Neither Article 10.1 nor 10.2 apply to the Career Ladder Programs referred to herein.

An employee temporarily assigned by a Supervisor, to perform the duties of a career ladder position shall receive added compensation in the amount of fifty (.50) cents per hour, for all hours worked in excess of one (1) hour.

All new bargaining unit employees shall be considered as probationary employees and must successfully complete a one (1) year probationary period before obtaining permanent employee status.

All probationary employees shall receive an employee evaluation at sixty (60), one hundred twenty (120), one hundred eighty (180) days, two hundred fifty (250) and three hundred fifty (350) days and prior to the completion of their one (1) year probationary period.

- 11.2. The Employer may request an additional thirty (30) day extension from the Union in special cases, which the Union shall not unreasonably withhold.
- 11.3. During the probationary period for new and rehired employees, the Employer may discharge such employees. Such discharge shall not be subject to the grievance or arbitration provisions of the Agreement. After completion of the probationary period, said employee shall accrue seniority from the date of hire.
- 11.4. If a special probationary employee fails to demonstrate that he or she can completely and satisfactorily perform the job, the Employer may at its discretion return the employee to his or her former position/classification.

ARTICLE XII
Wages

12.1. Salaries

- a) Effective and retroactive to January 1, 2024, a new three percent (3%) step will be added to the current wage schedule and all bargaining unit members eligible for a step increase will increase one (1) step. There will be no other step increases during the term of this contract
- b) Effective July 1, 2024, base wages will be increased by four percent (4%).
- c.) Probationary employees will receive a one (1) step increase upon completion of their probationary period.

12.2. Starting Wage:

The starting wage for new employees will be determined by management based upon the right to credit new employees with their directly related work experience and education in excess of the minimum requirement for the position for which they are being employed.

If a person is hired above the starting rate under this provision, other current employees at the same or lesser step will be reviewed using the same criteria and upgraded if applicable.

New employees hired above the rate of the probationary step will have a probationary period, but will receive no increase in pay at the completion of this probationary period.

The Union will receive notification from the employer of any employee hired under this section.

12.3 Longevity Pay:

The Employer shall pay longevity pay to employees who have completed three (3) years of continuous service in accordance with the following schedule:

Upon returning from an involuntary leave in excess of twelve (12) weeks in a twelve (12) month period, he/she will be given the first opportunity to return to his/her former position and shift when said opening is available.

22.2. Maternity Leave:

When an employee shall become pregnant, she shall furnish the employer with a certificate from her physician as soon as possible, but no later than the fifth (5th) month of pregnancy, stating the expected date of delivery. She shall be permitted to continue working provided her physician certified she is able to do so and provided her ability to perform her normal duties efficiently continues without harm to herself or her child and without adversely affecting patient care. Maternity leave will be granted up to twelve (12) weeks in a twelve (12) month period. Upon expiration of an approved maternity leave, the employee shall be reinstated to her former position and shift. If possible to do so, the employee will also be reinstated to her former unit. If the maternity leave exceeds twelve (12) weeks, she will be given the first opportunity to return to a position for which she is qualified and will be given the first opportunity to return to her former position and shift when said opening is available. If possible to do so, the employee will also be reinstated to her former unit.

22.3. Military Leave:

Leaves of absence for the performance of duty with the United States Armed Forces or with a reserve component thereof, shall be granted in accordance with applicable law.

22.4. Industrial Accident (work-related injury):

A leave of absence will be granted to an employee if he/she is absent because of an industrial accident (work-related injury). If such leave does not exceed twelve (12) consecutive weeks, the employee shall be reinstated to his/her former position and shift. If possible to do so, the employee will also be reinstated to his/her former unit. If the leave exceeds twelve (12) consecutive weeks, the Employer shall reinstate the employee to

If an employee is absent due to an industrial accident, he/she will receive dental and medical insurance and other benefits up to twelve (12) weeks in a twelve (12) month period and shall be reinstated to his/her former position and shift if he/she returns within this period. All other benefits shall accrue up to ninety (90) days.

22.5. Personal Leave:

Personal leaves without pay may be granted at the discretion of the Employer. Such leaves shall not be unreasonably denied. Such leaves shall begin after employee has used all accumulated leave time with the exception of sick time. If such leave does not exceed thirty (30) consecutive days, the employee will be reinstated to his/her former position and shift. If possible to do so, the employee will also be reinstated to his/her former unit. If the leave exceeds thirty (30) consecutive days, the employee will be given the first opportunity to return to a position he/she is qualified for and his/her former position and shift. The Union shall cooperate with the Employer in the carrying out of all the Employer's safety measures and the practices for accident prevention. In furtherance of the safety goals of the parties, employees will perform work in conformance with the Employer's safety rules and shall report known safety hazards. Each supervisor shall take prompt and appropriate action to report and/or correct if possible any unsafe conditions or actions that are reported or observed by the supervisor.
- 23.2. Employees shall perform their duties in a safe and efficient manner. The Union agrees that employees shall use health and safety equipment provided by the Employer.

An employee may utilize accumulated sick leave or vacation to cover the period of time between the occurrence of a job related injury or disease and the onset or availability of Worker's Compensation payments.

At any time after a job related disability, the employee may request that accumulated sick and vacation leave be used as special disability leave to either provide for continued receipt of pay or to supplement the payments noted above. In no case shall the combination of Worker's Compensation payments and sick/vacation leave used equal more than one hundred percent (100%) of the employee's regular rate of pay.

The County will provide alternative/transitional duty programs for employees injured on the job and unable to assume the full duties and responsibilities of their job in compliance with RSA 281 A:23-B.

The name of any such designee of the County Administrator or the Superintendent who is authorized to enforce this policy shall be provided in writing to the Union. The employee may be placed on leave in accordance with the provisions of Article XVII of this Agreement until the employee presents the County Administrator, Superintendent or their respective designee(s) with a fitness for duty certificate and a plan of treatment from a medical professional, a certified counselor or an accredited treatment facility. The employee may be required to present periodic documentation from the medical professional, certified counselor, or treatment facility of ongoing fitness for duty and treatment whether the employee remains on leave or returns to work.
