DECISION NO. 76-06

CASE

State Employees' Association of New Hampshire, Inc., (SEA) petitioned the Public Employee Labor Relations Board for recognition under RSA 273-A, Chapter 490:3 of the Laws of 1975.

BOARD DECISION

1. At the inception of operation of the Public Employee Labor Relations Board, the Board took due cognizance of Section 273-A:1 dealing specifically with "Effect on existing units, certifications and agreements", and adopted the following policy:

"The Board voted unanimously to give recognition to those bargaining units having written, signed, agreements in effect on December 21, 1975."

- The petitions of the State Employees' Association of New Hampshire, Inc. requesting recognition contained no evidence that a signed contract did exist on December 21, 1975.
- 3. The composition of the bargaining unit petitioned by SEA appears to be in conflict with the requirements of RSA 273-A.
- 4. PELRB, by unanimous vote, denies the petitions by the State Employees' Association of New Hampshire, Inc. for recognition as the exclusive bargaining unit for:
 - a) City of Franklin, New Hampshire, Police Department
 - b) State of New Hampshire -- classified employees
 - 1. Department of Health & Welfare
 - 2. Department of Public Works & Highways
 - 3. Department of Employment Security
 - 4. Department of Safety
 - 5. New Hampshire Youth Development Center
