ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR REHEARING

PELRB on November 30, 1987 entered into a unanimous decision whereby it ruled that the issue, subject of the unfair labor practice charge filed on behalf of teacher, Agnes Lylis, was grievable and ordered the parties to proceed to arbitration in accordance with Article III of the CBA.

Counsel for the District filed for reconsideration claiming failure on the part of the Board to find sufficient facts to support its conclusion.

Upon review of the case originally presented at the September hearing and consideration of the Motion for Rehearing along with the Union's objection to such motion, the Board reaffirms its original decision No. 87-66 and ORDERS that the motion be and same hereby is DENIED.

Edward J. Haseltine, Chairman

Signed this 25th day of February, 1988
