CASE NO. P-0713:2

DECISION NO. 90-82

DENIAL OF MOTION FOR REHEARING AND CLARIFICATION OF ORDER

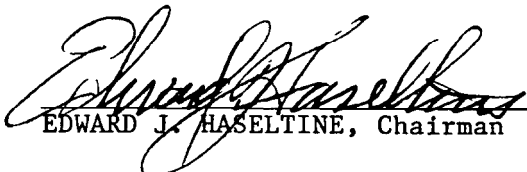

The board has received a Motion for Clarification of its earlier order in case number P-0713:2, said decision issued on August 7, 1990. The Board does not believe there is any need for a rehearing on this decision. However, the Board would note in further clarification of its decision that, in granting a new unit of uniformed personnel in the Department of Safety (State Police), it has created a new unit under RSA 273-A. Under the provisions of RSA 273-A:10 V., the Board is not allowed to certify any employee organization as exclusive representative without an election being held. Since the State Employees Association of New Hampshire, Inc. filed the Motion for Modification, an election will be held according to Board rules to see whether the employees in the new unit wish to be represented by the State Employees' Association of New Hampshire, Inc. If any other labor organization wishes to file a Petition of Certification, they shall have the right to file during the periods allowed by law, and they will be included on the ballot, as well. As in all elections, the option for "no representative" will also be included.

ORDER

The Board issues the following Order:

1. The Motion for Rehearing is DENIED.
2. An election will be held consistent with the terms of this clarification according to Board rules and the procedures of RSA 273-A.

Signed this 28th day of August, 1990.

EDWARD J. HASELTINE, Chairman

By unanimous vote. Chairman Edward J. Haseltine presiding. Members E. Vincent Hall and Seymour Osman present and voting. Also present Executive Director, Evelyn C. LeBrun.
