CASE NO. T-0324:20

DECISION NO. 1999-081

ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT

The parties, both appearing before the PELRB at its offices in Concord, New Hampshire on August 17, 1999, announced the following joint stipulation in settlement and withdrawal of the pending unfair labor practice complaint, to wit:

The parties agree to return to the table to discuss a multi-year agreement beginning 2000-2001 to negotiate the following issues:

- (1) Health Insurance
- (2) Paid leaves
- (3) Annual compensation and salary
- (4) Retirement (subject to the conditions below)
- (5) Length of day
- (6) In addition, each party may bring up to two "wild card" issues selected by each of the parties

Ground Rules would be discussed at the first meeting.

If no agreement is reached on retirement by February 1, 2000, a study committee will be formed pursuant to the attached TA dated 12-22-98 as amended today. If no agreement is reached on a new contract, Retirement will not be an issue for fact finding.

Upon review of the parties' joint stipulation, the PELRB determined that it was in the best interests of the parties and it would be beneficial to the collective bargaining process contemplated by RSA 273-A:3. Accordingly, the PELRB adopted the parties' joint stipulation as and for its disposition of this case and directed that the underlying unfair labor practice complaint be DISMISSED in accordance therewith.

So ordered.

Signed this 20th day of AUGUST, 1999.
