Case No. S-0327-36

Decision No. 2006-078

ORDER

WHEREAS the complainant filed an "Assented to Motion to Hold Matter in Abeyance" on May 11, 2006, stating, among other things, that the parties are currently engaged in contract mediation, that the Complainant believes that such mediation process may prove to be successful and that it would not be in the best interests of the parties (or the PELRB) to direct their resources in the further litigation of this matter, and

WHEREAS the complainant therefore requests that this matter be held in abeyance until September 15, 2006, to which the respondent does not object, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the above-referenced motion is granted, that the instant matter shall stand continued on the PELRB's docket of cases until September 15, 2006, and that the supplemental pre-hearing conference (via telephone) scheduled for May 17, 2006 and the adjudicative hearing scheduled for June 1, 2006 are cancelled. Unless the complainant requests further PELRB proceedings on or before September 15, 2006, this matter shall thereafter be administratively dismissed.

It is so ordered.

Signed this 12th day of May, 2006.
