ORDER ON ASSENTED TO MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Although respondent has neglected to provide the case or docket number of the previously scheduled arbitration case or mediation session, or state or federal court trial giving rise to the scheduled conflict as required under Pub 201.07 (e)(2) c-2, the motion to continue is nevertheless granted as opposing counsel has assented and the parties have agreed to a new hearing date. The hearing is rescheduled to December 4, 2006 at 9:30 a.m. Counsel for respondent shall forthwith file with the PELRB the case or docket number omitted from its filing in order to demonstrate full compliance with the rule.

So ordered.

November 9, 2006.
