STIPULATION

Now come the parties to the above captioned matter and agree and stipulate that the Public Employee Labor Relations Board may enter an order in this matter which provides as follows:

1. The Public Employee Labor Relations Board, with the consent of the parties, finds Sullivan County Nursing Home violated the provisions of RSA 273-A:5 (c) by refusing to bargain with AFSCM Local 3438 concerning elimination of Baylor shift scheduling;
2. The Public Employee Labor Relations Board, with the consent of the parties, orders the allegation of direct dealing filed with the Public Employee Labor Relations Board by AFSME Local 3438 against Sullivan County Nursing Home be withdrawn with prejudice;
3. The Public Employee Labor Relations Board, with the consent of the parties, orders Sullivan County to pay earned time to Kathy McNaughton;
4. The Public Employee Labor Relations Board, with the consent of the parties, orders there be no further action, by either party, for acts or omissions arising out of the elimination of Baylor shift scheduling at the Sullivan County Nursing Home; and

5. The Public Employee Labor Relations Board, with the consent of the parties, orders Sullivan County Nursing Home to post this order for 30-days at the Sullivan County Nursing Home.
