

AFSCME Council 93, Local 863 v. City of Rochester, Decision No. 2004-156 (Case No. A-0493-11)

Union claimed that city committed unfair labor practice by failing to conduct employee evaluations as pursuant to parties' contract. PELRB granted city's motion to dismiss finding that union's complaint was untimely because alleged violation occurred more than six months prior to filing of complaint.
