

State Employees Association of New Hampshire, Local 1984, SEIU v. State of NH Department of Corrections, Decision No. 2005-011 (Case No. S-0376-13).

Union claimed that state committed unfair labor practice by repeatedly failing to comply with contractual provisions relating to vacancies and transfers. PELRB dismissed union's complaint finding that parties' contract contained grievance procedure that included final and binding arbitration and that state's actions with respect to vacancies and transfers did not rise to level of bad faith bargaining.
